FOBISIA Community Learning JAWs

May 12th and 13th, 2017

Hosted by the British Vietnamese International School, HCMC VN

The British Vietnamese International School of Ho Chi Minh city warmly welcomes our partners in FOBISIA to join us for a weekend of sharing good practice so as to best grow and evolve as active participants in our local and international communities.

At this year's JAWs, we will focus on the following areas:

- Reassessing our schools' service programmes
- The ethical questions that should drive service learning
- Student-led community initiatives
- Giving a voice to our community partners
- Creating links between FOBISIA schools and projects to increase our level of partnership to make a positive impact

The JAWs will be made up of the following activities:

- Delegate presentations
- Key note speaker presentation(s)
- On-site and external visits to some of the BVIS Community Learning links and clubs
- Group workshops
- A campus tour

Accommodation and Logistics

Accommodation is not included in the conference fee. We have a preferential rate with the centrally located Norfolk Hotel (www.norfolkhotel.com.vn). Simply inform the hotel that you are attending a conference at BVIS and cc: JacyNguyen@bvisvietnam.com into your booking to receive the negotiated rate. Approximate cost for 3 nights is $270USD.

Please note that a bus pick-up and drop-off will be provided between the Norfolk Hotel and BVIS each day.
