

Psychology JAWS
Jerudong International School, Brunei

Friday 9th and Saturday 10th June 2017

This Job Alike Workshop is an opportunity to share best practice in Psychology teaching. It is for FOBISIA Psychology teachers and leaders of the subject. Participants will be expected to deliver a workshop during the two days.

Some initial ideas for session topics are listed below:

- Teaching Critical Thinking in Psychology
- How to prepare students for the application questions (creative questions)
- Differentiation in Psychology
- Self and Peer Assessment
- Note taking

JIS currently prepares students for the CIE and IB Psychology qualifications post 16.

The above sessions are suggestions and may be adapted or dropped according to the wishes of those involved. It is hoped that the agenda will evolve based on the experience and interests of those attending. A Google Drive Folder will be shared with all delegates to build the agenda collaboratively as well as sharing resources in the run up to this event.

To register for the event please use this link.

The deadline for registration is Friday 5th May 2017 .

The fee for attending will be $80BND. Suggested accommodation for the event is the Radisson Hotel. The rate per night is $150 BND+10% tax. Add an extra $16BND for breakfast. To contact the hotel please email reservations.brunei@radisson.com.

The fee will include meals, transport to and from the hotel plus relevant resources.
Any further enquiries please email: dawn.clare@jis.edu.bn

Kind regards,

Dawn Clare
Head of Psychology
Jerudong International School