

Automatic Bylaws Amendments

The following changes to the local bylaws were approved by the Pennsylvania Board of Managers and are effective 8-20-2020:

Article XII: Meetings.

Section 1. Regular Meetings. By inserting the words “A general membership meeting may be held electronically, in the event of an emergency.” after the word “year” to read:

Section 1. Regular Meetings. At least three (3) general membership meetings of this local PTA shall be held during the membership year. A general membership meeting may be held electronically in the event of an emergency.

Section 2. Special Meetings. By striking the words “if needed” after the word: “PTA” and by inserting the words: “A special meeting of this Local PTA may be held electronically in the event of an emergency.” after the word “purpose” to read:

Section 2. Special Meetings. A special meeting of this Local PTA shall be called by the president or by the majority of the executive board with three (3) days’ notice which shall include the date, time, place, and purpose. A special meeting of this Local PTA may be held electronically in the event of an emergency. No other business may be discussed or conducted.

The following changes to the council bylaws were approved by the Pennsylvania Board of Managers and are effective 8-20-2020:

Article XIII: Meetings

Section 1. Regular Meetings by inserting the words “A general membership meeting may be held electronically, in the event of an emergency.” after word “year” to read:

Section 1. Regular Meetings. At least three (3) general membership meetings of this council PTA shall be held during the membership year. A general membership meeting may be held electronically, in the event of an emergency.

Section 2. Special Meetings. By striking the words “if needed” after PTA and by inserting the words: “A special meeting of this council PTA may be held electronically in the event of an emergency.” after the word “purpose” to read:

Section 2. Special Meetings. A special meeting of this council PTA shall be called by the president or by the majority of the executive board with three (3) days’ notice which shall include the date, time, place, and purpose. A special meeting of this council PTA may be held electronically in the event of an emergency. No other business may be discussed or conducted.