

DEVELOPING VISIONARY STUDENT LEADERSHIP AND VOICE JAWS

FRIDAY 30 NOVEMBER
SATURDAY 1 DECEMBER

This JAWS is an opportunity for anyone who is interested in truly engaging students as stakeholders in their own learning; in letting go and allowing young people to lead, in all aspects of their school life. It is of particular interest to anyone who works directly with students to develop their capabilities as leaders.

The range of workshops will depend on what is being offered by participants but potential topics might include:

- Creating an open culture of student feedback
- Working with students as youth researchers to inform school improvement
- Authentic student representation on school leadership teams
- Promoting student led extra-curricular activities in school
- Promoting primary student leadership
- Developing effective student leadership in the Secondary School
- Students leading in the wider community
- Establishing constructive student and teacher partnerships to drive curriculum reform
- A student led approach to PSHE
- Students as leaders of Learning Technology

"The more the student becomes the teacher and the more the teacher becomes the learner, then the more successful are the outcomes."

Hattie, J, 2009

"I like to share my ideas and see the changes that I can make. I know that I have an important job."

Year Four BSJ student councillor

"If we want to create leaders of tomorrow, there is no better time to develop our students as leaders than today."

@gcours

"It means recognizing that young people have a perspective on the world that adults can't share, and that their perspective should be welcomed alongside the wisdom that adult perspectives bring."

Gretchen Brion-Meisels, Harvard Graduate School of Education

THE FOLLOWING WORKSHOPS ARE ALREADY CONFIRMED

- How to mobilise your student leaders to increase engagement in the Sustainable Development Goals - D'Arcy Lunn (Teaspoons of Change)
- Key questions for educators when establishing a system for student feedback on learning in the Secondary School
- Collecting primary student voice to inform long term change
- BSJ Primary Leadership Opportunities - primary students sharing their roles and responsibilities combined with their achievements this term
- Developing an effective peer mentoring scheme
- Students leading students in community engagements - How can we empower our student leaders in order to affect positive and authentic change in our local community?
- From 'class' to 'crew'; turning your class of followers into a community of leaders and learners
- Tech Heroes; student leadership in the Primary school, our journey so far

BSJ student leaders will be actively engaged in a number of the workshops on offer at this JAWS.

Register here

Cost US$ 60

(include transport and food)

Deadline for registration

Friday
9 November 2018

For further information about:

JAWS

Louise Jeffs (louise_jeffs@bsj.sch.id)

Accommodation and transport
Wuriyani Tuti (wuri@bsj.sch.id)

There will be an optional social event for all participants on the Friday night. Further details will be shared once the registration is confirmed.

AVIARY
BINTARO

Sales Manager
Email

Phone number
Mobile number
Website
Address

: Mr Tino Antonio
: tino.antonio@aviaryhotel.com and reservation@aviaryhotel.com
: +62 21 8082 8384
: +62 81236096318
: www.aviaryhotel.com
: Jl. Boulevard Bintaro Blok B7 No. BD/3-3A Bintaro
Jaya, Sektor 7, Tangerang Selatan 15224, Indonesia