Sociology and Social Science JAWS

Alice Smith School, Secondary Campus

14th - 15th June 2019 • 8.00am - 4.00pm

These workshops are designed for teachers of Sociology and other social sciences to share good practice. Some of the areas we hope to cover include:

- Integrating the practical teaching of research methods
- Using technology to support learning
- Scaffolding writing skills and supporting wider reading
- Effective A Level preparation
- Sharing good practice in teaching and learning
- Developing understanding of the British context in an international environment

We warmly invite teachers of Sociology and other social sciences such as Psychology. All participants will have the opportunity to help create the agenda for the day and are expected to lead at least one session. We hope that we can all contribute in order to benefit everyone's needs and interests. Please complete this form to register your interest in attending.
