New Hanover County
has extended outdoor, free public wireless access at the following county-owned locations:

-  Health and Human Services parking lot (1650 Greenfield Street)
-  Register of Deeds parking lot (320 Chestnut Street)
-  Downtown Library Story Park (corner of 3rd and Chestnut streets)
-  Cape Fear Museum Park (corner of Market and 8th streets)
-  NHC Government Center – south parking lot (230 Government Center Drive)
-  Northeast Public Library parking area on left of building (1241 Military Cutoff Road)

Signage will be up at these locations in the coming days, notifying residents of these free Wi-Fi access points.

The county's network name is "NHC_FreeWifi" and does not require a password to access.

In addition, the county has several buildings with free wireless inside that the public can access, including the Government Center (230 Government Center Drive) and all four public libraries – which are currently open with modified hours and have public computers available for one-hour sessions.
