

COMPOSITIES 1

- 1. Students will follow safety practices.
- 2. Students will investigate the fundamental nature of composites and how they are used to improve our world.
- 3. Students will demonstrate familiarity with basic materials used in the composites industry.
- 4. Students will gain experience performing wet layup and vacuum bagging processes with advanced composite materials.
- 5. Students will understand the purpose of good quality control, be able to follow quality procedures, demonstrate their understanding of precision measuring, and perform property testing and other quality control procedures as they relate to the composites industry.

