The Big Picture With Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

This Monday, we celebrate Labor Day. The Church has always recognized the value of labor. The following are excerpts from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (Liguori Publications, copyright 1994.) It speaks eloquently on the importance of work. I hope the following quotes will remind each of us that work is not just about getting a paycheck.

Paragraph 2427 Human work proceeds directly from persons created in the image of God and called to prolong the work of creation by subduing the earth, both with and for one another. Hence work is a duty. Work honors the Creator's gifts and the talents received from him. It can also be redemptive. By enduring the hardship of work in union with Jesus, the carpenter of Nazareth and the one crucified on Calvary, man collaborates in a certain fashion with the Son of God in his redemptive work.

Paragraph 2428 In work, the person exercises and fulfills in part the potential inscribed in his nature.

Paragraph 2429 Everyone has the right of economic initiative; everyone should make legitimate use of his talents to contribute to the abundance that will benefit all and to harvest the just fruits of his labor.

Paragraph 2433 Access to employment and to professions must be open to all without unjust discrimination: men and women, healthy and disabled, natives and immigrants. For its part society should, according to circumstances, help citizens find work and employment.

Paragraph 2434 A just wage is the legitimate fruit of work. To refuse or withhold it can be a grave injustice. "Remuneration for work should guarantee man the opportunity to provide a dignified livelihood for himself and his family on the material, social, cultural, and spiritual level..." (Gaudium et spes: Vatican II document.)

When you wake up this Tuesday and you are getting ready for work, remember what you have just read. Let us also remember to pray for those among us who are seeking employment.

God's Peace and Joy,

Fr. Bob

Bird's Eye View with Fr. Pellican

"Hallelujah anyhow" was the title and refrain of a gospel song written by the Detroit native Thomas Whitfield in the '70s. I must confess I have not actually listened to the song myself; I know of it because a wise priest at the seminary used to quote this title often as a reminder of our ability, and more than that of our duty as Christians, to praise God. The Catechism tells us that "praise is the form of prayer which recognizes most immediately that God is God. It lauds God for his own sake and gives him glory, quite beyond what he does, but simply because HE IS" (CCC 2639).

It is easy to spend the majority of our prayer asking God for things: healing for ourselves and others, safety, the conversion of our country, peace, etc. This type of prayer, which the Catechism calls "prayer of petition," is certainly an essential way to pray, but it is just one of five types of prayer outlined in the Catechism (2626-2643). An often forgotten prayer is the prayer of praise. This is when we take the focus off ourselves, off of others, and off of the world to focus on God alone.

It is clear that in our world today there is a lot to pray for. With the pandemic, the upcoming election, and widespread destruction from violence as well as natural disasters. But in the midst of all this, and all the worry and unrest we experience because of it, we can still praise God. We can still echo the sentiment of Thomas Whitfield: "Hallelujah anyhow." This is not blind naivety; it is simply acknowledging that, despite all that is going on in this world, God is still God, He is still in charge of this world, and He is still worthy of our praise.

Blessings on you all,

Fr. David

CHURCH OF THE DIVINE

PHASE 1: A PLAN FOR Safely RETURNING TO MASS

Dear parishioners - It is with joy in our hearts that we share Divine Child resumed public Masses on Tuesday, May 19, 2020. In alignment with the liturgical directives issued by Archbishop Allen Vigneron, we are committed to providing a safe and clean environment for the faithful to worship our Lord. The health of our parishioners is of utmost importance to us and new procedures and protocols have been put in place to ensure this. Please review the information below regarding how Mass will work and the role we all play in keeping each other safe. Thank you in advance for your patience and cooperation as we work through our new "normal" together. Note: Dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass is granted to all faithful through Sunday, Nov. 22, 2020. Let us keep each other in our prayers. - Fr. Bob McCabe

SECTION 1: WHO SHOULD ATTEND MASS

According to the Archbishop's directives, parish churches are not to exceed 25% of their total capacity at one time - that's 375 parishioners at Divine Child. This means we must count the number of attendees at each Mass, and we must turn attendees away when we reach capacity. We believe all people who desire to worship our Lord should have the ability to do so. See Section 2 for how we are working to ensure all can worship.

SECTION 2: SCHEDULE OF MASSES

(weather permitting)

SIGN UP FOR TEXT ALERTS!

To receive real-time text messages regarding when the church reaches its maximum capacity and cancellations of outdoor Masses due to weather, simply text the keyword DivineChild to 84576.

INDOOR MASSES | We are returning to our normal weekday and weekend Mass schedule. All parishioners must enter the church through the front doors (Silver Lane). Only 375 people will be admitted at once, and an attendant will be keeping count at the door. Attendees beyond that will be asked to proceed to the corresponding outdoor Mass at 10:15 AM or 12:45 PM, or to watch the weekend's streamed Mass.

OUTDOOR MASSES | Weather permitting, we will be adding two outdoor Sunday Masses at 10:15 AM & 12:45 PM on the football field. Attendees may enter the football field through the gateway building, through the North-West gate from the elementary school lot, or through the South-East gate. Attendees will be seated on the field facing the home bleachers. Those who attend the outdoor Masses are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or a blanket. No seating will be provided. You may also consider bringing a hand-held umbrella for shade. Don't forget your sunscreen! Face-coverings are not required at outdoor Masses as long as social distancing is maintained. *Note: Outdoor Mass cancellations due to weather will be communicated to parishioners by 7AM via text, social media and email.

LIVE STREAMED MASS | For those unable to attend Mass in-person, the weekend live stream will continue, but is moving to Saturday's 4:30 PM Mass. Watch the Mass in real-time or any time retroactively by visiting Facebook.com/DivineChildParish/Live.

SECTION 3: HOW MASS WILL WORK

FINDING A SEAT | To ensure proper social distancing and sanitizing of pews, parishioners will be asked to adhere to a seating chart for each Mass. Pews will be marked with alternating color coded letters. Please sit in these colored/lettered pews for the following Mass times. Attendants will also be present to assist parishioners.

WEEKDAY MASSES:

6:30 AM - Orange/A pews only

8:30 AM - Yellow/B pews only

SATURDAY MASSES:

8:30 AM - Orange/A pews only

4:30 PM - Yellow/B pews only

SUNDAY MASSES:

8 AM - Orange/A pews only

10 AM - Yellow/B pews only

12:30 PM - Green/C pews

OUTDOOR MASSES:

Please sit on or near the ten yard lines in order to provide adequate social distancing. Orange cones will be placed along each ten yard line to mark the amount of space to the front and back of attendees. Those who attend the outdoor Mass are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or a blanket. No seating will be provided. You may also consider bringing a hand-held umbrella for shade.

OFFERTORY | There will not be a collection during Mass. Upon the conclusion of Mass, please place your offertory in the collection baskets located in front of the altar, in the gathering space or at any exit of the football field. Alternatively, donations can be made online through FaithDirect.net, or mailed to/dropped off at the rectory (1055 N. Silver Lane, Dearborn, MI 48128).

COMMUNION | A limited number of Eucharistic ministers will be on hand for each Mass to distribute communion to multiple pew banks/yard lines. Thank you in advance for your patience as we expect communion to take longer than usual. Communion procedures will be explained just before the reception of the Holy Eucharist. If you wish to receive the Eucharist, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- Attendees should maintain 6 feet of distance from other attendees while proceeding to the front of church/field.
- All attendees should remove masks and gloves as they approach the minister. No gloves may be worn when receiving the Eucharist in hand.
- Attendees should bow and reply "Amen" at a distance of 6 feet from the Eucharistic minister and then approach to receive the Eucharist.

For your safety, if a Eucharistic minister accidentally touches the hand or mouth of a parishioner, he or she will sanitize his or her hands instantly with rubbing alcohol at a sanitizing station located near each Eucharistic minister's station.

*If you are uncomfortable receiving the Eucharist at this time, please know that there is no obligation to receive the Eucharist whenever you come to Mass.

SAFETY GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS
Measures we're taking to keep our community safe

FACE MASKS
All parishioners MUST wear a face mask as recommended by the CDC (except those under 2 years old) to obtain entry into all Masses.

SOCIAL DISTANCING
All attendees must maintain 6 feet of distance between themselves and others not in their household.

HAND SANITIZER
Parishioners are encouraged to bring and use hand sanitizer before & after Mass. We will also have 4 hand sanitizing stations located in the gathering space.

SANITIZING THE CHURCH
A deep sanitization of the church pews, doors, restrooms, etc. will be conducted after each weekday Mass and after the completion of Sunday liturgies. The church cannot be deep cleaned between Sunday Masses, and therefore, it is important to follow the color/letter seating chart for each Mass.

PLASMA GENERATOR
A plasma generator has been installed on the church HVAC system. The device breaks down and destroys viruses, bacteria and mold by charging the air with positive & negative ions.

August 22, 2020

Dear Divine Child Parishioners,

On August 6, 2020, the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued a response to questions regarding the validity of Baptisms in which the words used by the priest or deacon are different than those in the approved liturgical text. Specifically, in order to be valid, Baptisms must be performed using only the words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Deacon Mark Springer, while ministering at St. Anastasia Parish in Troy, used incorrect words during Baptisms from 1986-1999, meaning that those Baptisms were not valid. One of those invalidly baptized by Deacon Springer was Father Matthew Hood when he was an infant. As a result of that invalid Baptism, Father Hood was not validly confirmed, nor was he validly ordained a priest in 2017. The proper steps have been taken to remedy his situation and by the grace of God he has now been validly baptized, confirmed, and ordained.

I know this news raises many concerns for our entire parish community, particularly those who sought sacraments from Fr. Matt, but I want you to know that Fr. Matt, the Archdiocese of Detroit, and the staff here at Divine Child are working to contact those impacted to address their situations while offering pastoral care. Before going further, I want to assure you that all baptisms celebrated by Fr. Matt during his time at Divine Child are valid. It is a teaching and Tradition of the Church that anyone can baptize – even someone who has not been baptized himself – provided it is done correctly. Fr. Matt baptized correctly while he was with us here at Divine Child.

For those parishioners who requested a Mass intention that was offered at a Mass celebrated by Fr. Matt, an additional Mass will be offered as soon as possible to fulfill those particular intentions.

The Archdiocese of Detroit has set up a special website, aod.org/sacramentsupdate, with a letter from Archbishop Vigneron to the faithful, a list of frequently asked questions, and a form to request a phone call from an archdiocesan priest for those who have additional concerns or questions. I encourage you to read the letter from Archbishop Vigneron and to review the frequently asked questions on the AOD website.

I would like to offer my sincere sympathy, both to those directly affected and to the entire parish, for the disruption caused by this error. We can, however, take some comfort in the fact that, while God bound Himself to the sacraments, He is not bound by the sacraments. This means that those who received any invalid sacrament, having approached our Lord with love and in good faith, received some measure of grace.

If you have additional questions or concerns that you wish to discuss, you are more than welcome to contact me, Fr. Paul Graney, or Fr. David Pellican.

While these are unfortunate circumstances, we are grateful that this came to Fr. Matt's attention early in his ministry, and that by God's Divine Providence we were able to remedy his situation so quickly. Let us continue to pray for one another and for all those affected.

In God's peace,

Fr. Bob McCabe

August 22, 2020

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Earlier this month, the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued an important doctrinal note alerting the Church throughout the world that baptisms were not valid in which a particular word or words were changed. Specifically, to say “We baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” does not convey the sacrament of baptism. Rather, ministers must allow Jesus to speak through them and say, “I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

In making this clarification, the Congregation pointed to the Second Vatican Council, which established that no one “even if he be a priest, may add, remove, or change anything in the liturgy on his own authority.”

One of our priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit received this news with particular devastation. Father Matthew Hood, a graduate of Sacred Heart Major Seminary who sought ordination to the priesthood in June of 2017, had recently viewed a family video taken at the time of his Baptism as an infant and realized the celebrating deacon decided to change the proper words (formula) to Baptism, using “We baptize” as opposed to “I baptize.”

Father Hood immediately contacted the Archdiocese and the proper steps were taken to remedy his situation. He was recently validly baptized. Furthermore, since other sacraments cannot be validly received in the soul without valid Baptism, Father Hood also was recently validly confirmed and validly ordained a transitional deacon and then a priest. Let us give thanks and praise to God for blessing us with Father Hood’s ministry.

The difficulty of this news is also in its impact upon the rest of us. The deacon who first attempted to baptize Father Hood, Deacon Mark Springer, used this invalid formula while assigned at St. Anastasia Parish in Troy, during the period from 1986-1999. The parish and Archdiocese of Detroit will make efforts to contact those whom the deacon attempted to baptize, so that they may receive valid sacraments. The Archdiocese has made the deacon’s identity known in an attempt to alert people whom we may not have a way to contact.

This news also impacts many who have interacted with Fr. Hood during these last three years, during which time his ability to celebrate valid sacraments has been greatly limited. More information is at <http://aod.org/sacramentsupdate> about the effect on each sacrament. The parishes where Fr. Hood has been assigned – Divine Child in Dearborn and St. Lawrence in Utica – will be working with the Archdiocese to contact those who sought out the sacraments with Fr. Hood, so that each individual’s circumstance may be examined and rectified.

As is always the case with Christ, there is hope amid this darkness. The Church, following the thought of St. Thomas Aquinas, recognizes that God has bound Himself to the sacraments, but He is not bound by the sacraments. This means that while we can have certainty that God always works through the sacraments when they are properly conferred by the minister, God is not bound by the sacraments in that He can and does extend His grace in a sovereign way. We can be assured that all those who approached Father Hood, in good faith, to receive the sacraments did not walk away empty-handed. We know that Our Lord, in his unending love for us, supplied some measure of grace. God is drawn to hearts that are open to Him in love.

At the same time, the sacraments, when properly administered, are visible rites and efficacious channels through which the sanctifying grace of God flows to those who receive them with the proper disposition. Sanctifying grace is necessary for a soul to spend eternity in heaven, and valid sacramental baptism guarantees that this grace has been placed in the soul. Sin is a loss of sanctifying grace, but all the sacraments work according to their purpose to give and fortify sanctifying grace in the soul. This grace is a treasure of treasures and we must do everything we can to protect the integrity of the sacraments through which we receive it. It is the duty of the local Church to ensure that everyone entrusted into her care has the full benefit and certainty that come from the valid reception of the sacraments, which have been given to us to keep us as secure as possible on the path to heaven.

On behalf of our local Church, I am deeply sorry that this human error has resulted in disruption to the sacramental lives of some members of the faithful. I will take every step necessary to remedy the situation for everyone impacted. This commitment is, in part, why I write to you today, with the hope that you may assist me in identifying those in need of the sacraments. If you believe your own sacramental record may be tied to either Deacon Springer’s or Fr. Hood’s ministry, please visit aod.org/sacramentsupdate to contact the Archdiocese or call your parish for more information about how to proceed.

I ask that you join me in praying for Father Hood, Deacon Springer, members of the faithful directly impacted by this situation, and for the entire Catholic community of southeast Michigan. In the words of St. Paul to the Philippians: “Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit

Nativity of Our Blessed Mother Mary

Sweet Child Mary, destined to be the Mother of God and our sovereign and loving Mother, by the prodigies of grace you lavish upon us, mercifully listen to my humble supplications. In the needs which press upon me from every side and especially in my present tribulation, I place my trust in you.

O holy Child, by the privileges granted to you alone and by the merits which you have acquired, be merciful to me this day. Show that the source of spiritual favors and the continuous benefits which you dispense are inexhaustible, because your power with the Heart of God is unlimited.

Deign through the immense profusion of graces with which the Most High has enriched you from the first moment of your Immaculate Conception, grant me, O Celestial Child, my petition, and I shall eternally praise the goodness of your Heart.

ST. PETER CLAVER, SJ

St. Peter Claver, SJ, was a member of the Society of Jesus and is the patron of African missions and of interracial justice, due to his work with slaves in Colombia.

Peter Claver was born to a prosperous family in Verdu, Spain and was encouraged to go to the missions in America. Claver landed in Cartagena, Colombia in 1610. After completing his studies in Bogotá, Peter was ordained in Cartagena in 1616.

Cartagena was one of two ports where slaves from Africa arrived to be sold in South America. Between the years 1616 and 1650, Peter Claver worked daily to minister to the needs of the 10,000 slaves who arrived each year.

When a ship arrived, Peter first begged for fruits, biscuits, or sweets to bring to the slaves. Claver entered the holds of the ships and would not leave until every person received a measure of care. Peter gave short instruction in the Catholic faith and baptized as many as he could. In this way he could prevail on the slave owners to give humane treatment to fellow Christians. Peter Claver baptized more than 300,000 slaves by 1651, when he was sickened by the plague.

In the last years of his life Peter was too ill to leave his room. The ex-slave who was hired to care for him treated him cruelly, not feeding him many days, and never bathing him. Claver never complained. He was convinced that he deserved this treatment.

In 1654 Peter was anointed with the oil of the Sacrament of the Sick. When Cartagenians heard the news, they crowded into his room to see him for the last time. They treated Peter Claver's room as a shrine, and stripped it of everything but his bedclothes for mementos. Claver died September 1654. His feast day is September 9.

Sweet Garden Angels

This first harvest season of the Victory Garden initiative has indeed been "fruitful" as feedback from the SVdP Food Pantry suggests a need was fulfilled. The needy wiped the shelves clean of your veggie surplus. Matt, chair of the Food Pantry, has been delighted with the response from our needy neighbors.

Incoming veggies on the "off days" are added to the SVdP Fruit Stand at the headquarters, which is my home. Neighbors clamored for veggies and by the end of the day when I wheel the Fruit Stand into my garage, it's very comforting and rewarding knowing that our Victory Garden project has answered their needs.

If you are interested in donating veggies to our cause, please deliver to the headquarters at 951 North Elizabeth, Dearborn. Our delivery to the Food Pantry is Mondays and Wednesdays at noon. Any contribution is extremely important for our success in aiding our needy neighbors. Our "garden angels" have exhibited "caring and sharing" and not only is SVdP thankful for their tireless efforts, our needy thanks you too.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6Entrance AntiphonPsalm 119 (118): 137, 124*

You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

FIRST READING*Ezekiel 33:7-9 (127A)*

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the Lord: You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel; when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me. If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die," and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm*Psalm 95: 1-2, 6-7, 8-9R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts

Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord;
let us acclaim the rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord who made us.
For he is our God and we are the people he shepherds,
the flock he guides

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:

"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,
where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works."

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your heartsSECOND READINGRomans 13:8-10*

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. PRAY WITH THE KNIGHTS: 5th SUNDAY ROSARY

The Foley Knights of Columbus together with Divine Child Parishioners gathered last Sunday, August 30th, 2020 at 11:30 AM, to pray the Rosary on the 5th Sunday of the month. Brother Knight Ernie Bridgnanan led the Rosary for the Intention of Wisdom for our Nation in the Upcoming Elections. It was a beautiful day to be outside and pray. Mark your calendars and join us for the next 5th Sunday Rosary on November 29, 2020.

GOD IS CALLING US! DO WE HEAR HIM? ARE WE LISTENING?

I am Steve Lentz and the Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus Council that serves Divine Child Parish. I believe God has been calling me my whole life. But I could not hear him. I was caught up in my daily life, pursuing an education, marrying my best friend, finding a job, and raising my three children. Perhaps I was just too busy to listen.

In September of 2016, I was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer. Over a 6-month period, I went through a very difficult time while I was treated with 12 sessions of chemotherapy. But through the Grace of God, the love, support, and prayers from my family and friends, and modern medicine, I was in complete remission by May 2017 and have been so for the last 3 years.

One of the first things I did after recovering was to start listening to God. It was at this same time that the Foley Knights found root at Divine Child as a Parish Council. On Memorial Day in 2017, I marched in the Dearborn parade with the Knights and in July, I joined the Foley Council. Now I serve as the Grand Knight, leader of this council. If someone asked me 3 years ago if I would agree to lead a Knights of Columbus council, I would have politely declined. However, after getting to know and working closely with the Foley Knights and their families at DC, I am eager and proud to lead such a great group of Catholic gentlemen. I am blessed to have a team of great leaders to guide this council.

I strongly encourage the men in the parish to open your hearts and listen to God's call. The Knights of Columbus is a great organization to begin your journey towards putting your faith into action. We are not perfect Catholics, but we are a friendly group of like-minded Catholic men that support each other, our families, parish, and community. The Knights involve the whole family. Our wives and children are an important part of our family-based mission.

Be the Catholic gentleman that God is calling you to be and lead your family and inspire your children to live a faithful life. God is calling! Do not say you are too busy or wait until it is too late. I pray that you have the strength and courage to listen.

JOIN THE KNIGHTS AND SERVE WITH US

Did you know that Fr. Bob and our current and past associate priests, Frs. Paul, David, and Matt are all members of the Knights of Columbus? Now is a GREAT TIME to JOIN THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS. Why? It's EASY!

In just a few steps you could become a member of the Knights of Columbus through the e-membership (online membership) process. Remember to do the following: 1. Visit kofc.org/joinus; 2. Click on the Join or Join Today Links, 3. Answer a few questions, 4. Enter 2660 as your preferred Council and Divine Child as your parish.

Once you join the Knights of Columbus through the e-membership program, we encourage you to become a 3rd Degree Knight and join the Foley Council #2660 that serves Divine Child Parish. The Knights of Columbus now offer online opportunities to join councils due to current social distancing precautions. The Exemplification of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity ceremony is available on demand. The next in-person Exemplification Ceremony to join the Foley Council #2660 will be held on Sunday, September 27, 2020 starting with a 9:00 am Mass at Christ the Good Shepherd in Lincoln Park.

If you are interested in joining this group of fine men, please call or text me, Steve Lentz at 313-949-5162 or talk to any Foley Knight!

Samuel 3:1-19 - the LORD came and stood there, calling out as before: Samuel, Samuel! Samuel answered, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

What is Evangelical Charity?

Written by: Cindy Portis and Chris Leach

The Archdiocese of Detroit knows how to serve! We have ministries within our archdiocese helping to heal social injustices and bring the Gospel to diverse groups of people. Marker 8.4 of Unleash the Gospel is called Evangelical Charity, a term that reminds us that when the Church does good works we are not trying to do the work of a social service agency but the work of the Gospel! “Woe to me if I do not proclaim the Gospel.” (1 Cor. 9:16) These words of St. Paul should be on our minds as we undertake any work as a church—even when those works are charitable in nature. What then is the connection between charity and evangelization?

In Unleash the Gospel we are challenged to serve in the spirit of sharing Jesus Christ and not just to address a social need. Archbishop Vigneron writes, “Our service to the poor and marginalized needs to be a clear witness to Jesus our Lord, not mistaken for humanist philanthropy.” We need to infuse our faith with our charitable works so when they are seen and received others feel the spirit of Jesus in our actions. Our faith is not something we can keep bound up in our soul; we need to share it. As our faith grows and becomes a part of our “every day of the week life,” not just our “Sunday life,” others will see why Jesus is something to cling to!

As we share our faith by doing charitable acts, we need to remember that connecting others to Jesus is our most important act. Certainly, Jesus would want us to feed, clothe and shelter the vulnerable—protecting them from natural elements and social ills—but the Jesus we know from the Gospel ministered to both temporal and spiritual hungers. In Unleash the Gospel, the archbishop writes, “We need to ensure that in ministering to the material needs of others we are also responding to their spiritual thirst for God. Every Catholic charitable work must also be an authentic expression of the Catholic faith. We must be unabashed to speak the name of Jesus and to invite every person to the fullness of life in him.”

So how can we connect the two? How can we share the good news of Jesus while helping others?

- Show generous hospitality. If we are able to help at a soup kitchen, food pantry or clothing bank, our example of generous hospitality with a kind word or warm smile can often make someone's day and make him or her feel noticed. (Many times in the Bible we hear of people by the side of the road calling out to Jesus as he walked by, and all they wanted was to be recognized.)
- Invite the poor to join your community. When we fill a food box for someone, the inclusion of a church bulletin can help connect them with a parish.
- Pray with those you serve. Inviting someone to say a quick prayer before they depart with a winter coat may warm them more than the coat itself. Inviting God into their lives through prayer is best done through the intimacy of prayer between two people.
- Even a simple smile can make all the difference for someone as we share our piece of peace we have found in him. After all, the Gospel is our joy!

During these uncertain times, with the challenges of the COVID-19, political and social unrest, increased disparity between people of all nations and so many people hungry and out of work, it is easy to become overwhelmed and switch from evangelical charity to merely “helping.” We must remember, as the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church reminds us, “Nothing that concerns the community of men and women—situations and problems regarding Justice, freedom, development, relations between peoples, peace—is foreign to evangelization, and evangelization would be incomplete if it did not take into account the mutual demands continually made by the Gospel and by the concrete, personal and social life of man.” (66)

We are also reminded that “The Church's social doctrine ‘is itself a valid instrument of evangelization’ and is born of the always new meeting of the Gospel message and social life.” (67) Remember that within the Gospel, Jesus outstretched his hands to save each one of us. Holding his hand in ours we can unite others to him through our charity.

A Brother Who Sins
MT 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

TAKE TIME TO CHAT:

- What is Jesus saying to us in this Gospel about forgiveness?
- Share a time when someone has sinned against you. How did you handle it?
- Jesus says, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them." When have you felt the presence of Jesus in a group of two, three, or more?

Prayer for a New School Year

God of wisdom and might, we praise You for the wonder of our being, for mind, body and spirit. Be with our children as they begin a new school year. Bless them and their teachers and staff. Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow; wisdom and knowledge to their minds as they search for understanding; and peace and zeal to their hearts. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK:Indian Spiced Hummus

1 can (15-ounce) chickpeas
2 tablespoons tomato paste
¼ teaspoon turmeric
½ teaspoon garam masala
½ teaspoon cumin seeds
¼ teaspoon cayenne
1 teaspoon salt
2 cloves of garlic
1 teaspoon fresh ginger
⅓ cup + 1 tablespoon olive oil Lemon juice + cilantro for the top

First, combine the spices (turmeric, garam masala, cumin seeds, and cayenne) in a small, dry pan and toast over medium heat for about 45 seconds until very fragrant. Remove from the heat.

In a food processor, combine the chickpeas (drained and rinsed from the can), tomato paste, toasted spices, salt, garlic, and ginger. Blend while slowly adding the olive oil. If your processor doesn't allow for adding oil while it is on, you can just add it in batches, scraping down the sides of the bowl in between.

Blend until very smooth. Top with a big squeeze of fresh lemon juice and about a tablespoon or a little less of chopped cilantro. Serve alongside fresh cut veggies like cucumber or bell peppers, crackers, or naan.

Meet Our Extended Family:

St. Teresa of Calcutta
(Feast Day September 5)
AUGUST 26, 1910 –
SEPTEMBER 5, 1997

Born to Albanian parents in what is now Skopje, Macedonia, Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu was the youngest of the three children who survived. At age 18, she entered the Loreto Sisters of Dublin. The following year, she was sent to the Loreto novitiate in Darjeeling, India. There, she chose the name Teresa and prepared for a life of service. She was assigned to a high school for girls in Calcutta, where she taught history and geography to the daughters of the wealthy.

In 1946, while riding a train to Darjeeling to make a retreat, Sister Teresa heard what she later explained as "a call within a call." She was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them. She also heard a call to give up her life with the Sisters of Loreto and instead, to "follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor." Mother Teresa worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor. Her love knew no bounds nor did her energy, as she crisscrossed the globe pleading for support and inviting others to see the face of Jesus in the poorest of the poor.

In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. On September 5, 1997, God called her home. Blessed Teresa was canonized by Pope Francis on September 4, 2016.

FAMILY FUN:
Care for the Poor

Honor St. Teresa of Calcutta by caring for the poor. Get in touch with your local food pantry and ask them what their greatest needs are. Work together to raise money (maybe by returning bottles and cans or raking leaves for neighbors) to purchase much needed items for the pantry.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR LOVED ONES IN THE MILITARY*"Heavenly Father, protect these members of our Armed Forces.Be their constant companion and their strength in battle, their refuge in every adversity. Guide them, Lord, so that they may return home safely." Amen.*
