

What Guides Us?

The Principles of Wraparound

Family Voice and Choice – It's your life. You decide what works best for you.

Team Based – You pick the people who will support your success.

Collaboration – Everyone has a part and works together to reach your goals.

Individualized – A plan that works with your needs.

Strengths-based – Identifying and building up your skills.

Persistence – Working hard and not giving up despite setbacks.

Outcome-based – Working toward the goals until they've been reached.

Community-based – Building supports within the community to support your success.

Natural Supports – Support from those you trust and will be there when the process is over.

Culturally Competent – Respects your beliefs and identity. Never judging your values.

Wraparound aims to build problem solving skills, coping skills, and self-supporting skills of youth and their family members. Wraparound seeks to ensure that families have the community supports they may need when Wraparound is complete.

What is Wraparound?

Wraparound helps youth age 0-17 and their families achieve their goals by identifying their needs and building upon the strengths of each family member. Wraparound helps create a team of family, friends, professionals and community members who will work together to develop a plan that supports their goals. This process allows everyone to be on the same page, working on the same goals for a greater chance of success!

“Our Wraparound Care Coordinator has been an amazing resource! Having support at home, at school, and day to day has helped us so much!”

Wraparound places the youth and family in the driver’s seat. You are the experts of your family and know what works best for you!

We understand working with professionals can be intimidating and sometimes confusing. Unlike traditional treatment planning, Wraparound strives to get to know the family and understand what is important to them. Wraparound walks beside the family and aims to empower them to make positive change.
