

Magnificent Maya

& Inside The Chocolate Factory

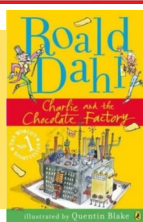

CORE LEARNING

- Locating the geographical area of the Maya civilisation
- When the Maya lived in relation to British history
- Maya beliefs and culture and the impact that it has had
- Linking the Maya to modern day chocolate

KEY TEXTS

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl
Maya Creation Story

Special Events

Maya Feast Day
Chocolate making

- Use an increasing range of common words and phrases relating to the passing of time
- Describe memories of key events in their lives using historical vocabulary
- Recognise there are similarities and differences between places
- Develop awareness of how places relate to each other
- Use and interpret maps, atlases, globes and digital mapping to locate countries and key features
- Place some historical periods in a chronological framework
- Use historic terms related to the period of study
- Use sources of information to answer questions about the past
- Use a variety of resources to find out about aspects of life in the past
- Understand that sources can contradict each other
- Communicate learning in an organised and structured way
- Recognise the different shapes of continents
- Develop knowledge of places beyond the UK
- Understand why there are similarities and differences between places
- Explain about key natural resources
- Civilisation
- Maya
- Chichen Itza
- Worship
- Sacrifice
- Ritual
- Evidence
- Codices
- Hieroglyph
- Aztec
- Cacao
- Chocolate
- Seed pods
- Temple

CROSS CURRICULAR LEARNING

Art/DT: Weaving (God's eyes)
 Science: Reversible changes
 Geography: Location of Maya civilisation in relation to modern South America
 English: Narrative writing—the creation story, report writing, persuasive writing relating to advertising