OUTREACH MINISTRY

The Women of OLGC will hold its first-ever Drive-By Food Drive to collect non-perishable foods for the Committee for Helping Others (CHO) and Food For Others at DeSales Hall. Gift cards, cash and checks made payable to "CHO" for the December Christmas Store will also be collected. This will be the only collection for CHO, there will no longer be a 2nd offertory collection at OLGC for CHO. Typically, OLGC has raised nearly $10,000 for CHO's Christmas Store; please be as generous as possible; the needs of those experience hunger are great. Contact Women of OLGC at olgcwomen2019@gmail.com to add your name to assist with this crucial food drive.

Committee for Helping Others

simple, loving charity for the needy of Vienna, Oakton, Dunn Loring, and Merrifield

Committee for Helping Others (CHO) is a Vienna-based non-profit interfaith organization, provides food, clothing, and furniture as well as emergency rent, utility, and medical assistance to people in need living in Vienna, Oakton, Dunn Loring, and Merrifield. CHO also has a December Christmas Store to provide needy families with gifts and food cards for the holidays. Since March, CHO has distributed more than $75,000 in food and emergency assistance and has worked with Fairfax County to distribute county coronavirus funds.

Food for Others: Fairfax County food bank estimates that 70,000 people in Northern Virginia live in poverty, with 30% of them being children. Currently, Food for Others serves 2,600 local families each week with baskets of food. The bulk of this food comes thru food drives.

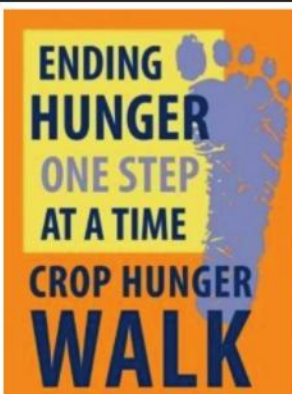

Thank you for helping those that are experiencing hardship at this time.

We look forward to seeing you Sat. Sept. 19th 8am - 5pm or Sun. Sept. 20th 7am - 5pm!

VIENNA CROP HUNGER WALK Looking for team captain to help CROP Walk committee coordinate OLGC's participation on October 4th. The Annual Vienna CROP Walk for hunger relief is looking for an OLGC team captain to coordinate parish participation. The Walk, which raises money for both international hunger relief and for CHO (a local food pantry and emergency relief organization), will be a mostly virtual event this year. Participants will walk during the week of October 4 in a manner and place that is safe for them, and to contribute online or through the mail. The Team Captain publicizes the Walk within the parish. This is a great opportunity to work on a short-term project with other churches for a worthy cause. If interested, contact Anne Moran at amoranelm@gmail.com.

HELPFUL PRODUCTS – There are lots of products out there that make life easier for older adults. The following are five of the best. There's a smart pill reminder box that is programmable to make it easy to remember to take medications on time. Next is an adjustable bathtub safety grab bar, which is a really easy way to modify the bathroom without having to make any permanent changes to the home. An automatic stove shut-off can help prevent fires in the home if you forgot and left the stove on. There's a cordless fall monitor and cordless floor mat that can be placed outside or in the doorway, and it'll alert you in the event of a loved one falling. Lastly, there's an orientation clock that helps with memory loss. Google "products for seniors catalog" to find these items. You'll see a wide array of choices from which to choose, as well as free catalogs to help with special needs.

MYTHS ABOUT HOSPICE CARE – This is the first in a short series about a subject that none of us want to talk about. For that very reason, there's a misconception about its role in the care of those who are suffering from a terminal illness. There are five of these myths, some of which you'll read about today, the rest will appear in future columns.

The first myth is that the patient must have a written referral from their doctor before they can be assessed to see if they are appropriate for hospice care. This is not true. A patient or their family/medical POA (Power of Attorney) can ask for an assessment by hospice at any time. This is an opportunity to learn what supports hospice can provide and to answer any questions that the patient and family may have. If the patient decides that they want to elect to use their Medicare Part A benefit for hospice, THEN the physician will need to write a referral to hospice, and a hospice nurse will be sent out to do a comprehensive assessment, explain the hospice benefits to the patient and their family, and the patient or their Medical Power of Attorney will sign the admission paperwork. (Aging Life Care Assoc.)

ELDER WISDOM – Worrying won't stop the bad stuff from happening. It just stops you from enjoying the good.
