

Are you currently unemployed and interested in a technical career that offers a living wage and benefits?

Join the

WELDING/ METAL FABRICATION TRAINING

Careers in Welding/ Metal Fabrication offer good salaries and benefits.

Begin a career in an industry that uses metal fabrication techniques, such as: Aerospace, Defense, Medical Device, Computer & Electronic, Pharmaceutical and Medicine
Jobs conveniently located in Northeast Massachusetts!

STARTING ON MONDAY OCTOBER 5, 2020

Monday through Thursday

4:00-9:00pm

Greater Lawrence Technical School

WELDING/ METAL FAB TRAINING

Includes:

- ✓ Basic fabrication competencies, including TIG & MIG
- ✓ OSHA Certification
- ✓ Weekly stipend and coaching if you qualify

Small group in-person training with COVID-19 safety protocols

For information on eligibility criteria and more, call/text Corina at 978-701-8176 or email cruiz@masshiremvwb.org

Eligibility Criteria: 18 years of age or older; HS Diploma, GED or HiSET; Permanent Resident legally eligible to work in US; Clean CORI; must test at 6th grade level in Math and Reading; Basic English; Must be receiving a public subsidy such as MassHealth, SNAP, childcare voucher or live in public housing.

Funding for this program is made possible by a MA Learn to Earn Initiative grant managed by Commonwealth Corporation.