Congratulations to Tilek Sadyrbekov. Over the weekend he competed in, and won the state Greco-Roman wrestling championship in State College. This qualifies him to compete in the National Championship this summer in Fargo North Dakota. Way to go Tilek!!!

The CVHS Select Chorus competed and swept their first Music in the Parks competition on Saturday at Kennywood Park. The choir places first in their division with a superior rating. They were the highest scoring group of the entire competition with a 98 out of 100 and were awarded the best overall choir award. Lastly, senior Paris Paige was awarded outstanding high school vocalist of the competition.

Congratulations to all of our students and remember, it is never too late to sign up! Stop down or send an email to Mr. Woodward if you are interested!
