IMPACT REPORT 2018-2019

Dear Lamplighter Community Members,

The author, Robert Louis Stevenson, once said, “Don’t judge each day by the harvest you reap, but by the seeds you plant.” And, like the ripple effect caused by a stone skipping across a pond, the generous gifts made by parents, alumni, grandparents, faculty and staff, foundations, corporations, and many more, have a profound impact on our students this year and for many years to come.

In this, my second year at The Lamplighter School, I continue to be amazed by this community’s culture of philanthropy. Philanthropy, in its purest form, is an invitation to join in the mission of our School. As you see in this edition of the LampPost, the mission of Lamplighter has never been more alive.

As our students grow and branch out into the world, the values, confidence, and creativity developed in them by the Lamplighter experience will make an impact on an even much larger scale. As mentioned in previous pages of this magazine, we refer to this as The Lamplighter Effect.

Philanthropy at Lamplighter helps inspire each student to explore, discover, take risks, and make choices in their daily lives. These gifts, along with incredible gifts of time by countless volunteers, make the most powerful impact possible on our students.

As Martin Luther King, Jr. shared, “Life’s persistent and most urgent question is ‘What are you doing for others?’” I am proud to be a part of a community that does so much for so many.

In Lamplighter Spirit,

Clayton Hollingsworth
Chief Advancement Officer
