

Ying-Ching Jeter

7th and 8th
Music
2A / 3B
Team 83

Biography

Yingching Chang Jeter, a native of Taiwan, received her B.A. degree in Bassoon and Piano performance from Tunghai University, Taiwan, ROC. In 1992, she came to the United States and completed a Master's degree in Music Education from The University of Texas at Austin in May 1994. A year later, she received her second Master's degree in Bassoon performance from San Diego State University. The year of 2008, Ms. Jeter received the certifications with superior ratings in both oral and writing for teaching Mandarin Chinese.

Currently, she is the music director at South Texas ISD World Scholars and South Texas ISD Preparatory Academy where she established the music program in 1998. In 2011, she became a faculty member as a double reed instructor at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

Ms. Jeter has served as an All-State clinician and double reed chairman for Region 15 since 2006 and has produced several All-State double reed students throughout South Texas. She also serves as a faculty for some music camps during the summer teaching oboe and bassoon.

Ms. Jeter joined Valley Symphony Orchestra the year of 1999 and was named co-principal oboe in August 2015. In addition to the regional orchestra, she has performed with the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra, Corpus Christi Ballet Orchestra, Laredo Philharmonic Orchestra, South Texas Lyric Opera, and Kingsville Symphony Orchestra. She is also active as a chamber musician. She is a founding member of The Maple Madness Bassoon Quartet, UTRGV Faculty Winds, Summer Winds, UTRGV Double Reed Ensemble and other wind chamber ensembles in the Rio Grande Valley. In 2014, she became a member of the RGV Chamber Music Society.

Yingching.Jeter@stisd.net