ATTENDANCE

Policy

Resurrection College Prep maintains academic rigor through the presence of students in the classroom. Instructional time is the foundation of the educational program. Failure to attend school means lost opportunities to learn. Therefore, Resurrection College Prep expects students to be in attendance for all classes each school day. A cooperative effort by the student, parent/guardian and school personnel ensures that a student maintains regular attendance which supports academic growth.

All students are expected to adhere to the Attendance policies and procedures as outlined in the Student Handbook. Parents/legal guardians are recognized as the only persons who may excuse a student from school.

COVID-19-Related Absences

In determining exclusion from school due to Covid-exposure or illness, the Illinois Department of Public Health's COVID-19 Interim Exclusion Guidance for Schools will be followed. Students will be expected to resume their cohort's on-campus/remote learning cycle once they have quarantined the specified time and met the criteria for their status as outlined on the IDPH's chart, IDPH Exclusion Guide.

It is necessary for parents to contact the Dean of Students when their daughters have COVID-19 symptoms or when they have been in close contact with a person who has tested positive for COVID-19 or who is considered a probable COVID-19 case.

Students who must remain off-campus due to Covid-related issues, will be temporarily moved to Cohort C and expected to learn remotely for all classes, unless their health does not permit them to complete school work.

Additionally, students who have returned from a state on the Chicago Emergency Travel Order list will be required to quarantine for 14 days. Therefore, parents are cautioned to avoid travel to these states. More information can be found at Chicago Emergency Travel Order.

On-Campus and Remote Learning Attendance

On the days that a student's cohort is learning on campus, she must be physically present in the classroom to be considered in attendance. Students may learn remotely only when their cohort is scheduled to learn remotely or on Black Days when all students are learning remotely.

Specific to Remote Learners

Students studying remotely with their cohort or on Black Days must be logged into the class' Zoom session at the time the class is scheduled to begin. Students who arrive to a class' Zoom session more than five minutes late will not be admitted to the virtual classroom as their tardiness disrupts teaching and learning. These absences will be considered unexcused unless a parent contacts the Dean of Students within 24 hours of the absence, who will determine if the student's absence is considered excused.

Resurrection College Prep understands that attending classes remotely can present unforeseen challenges. If a student experiences technical difficulty due to Wi-Fi/connectivity issues, she is to immediately email her teacher. The student's parent is to email the Dean of Students, Ms. Bernardin (tbernardin@reshs.org) regarding the connectivity issue. Students who establish a pattern of absences due to connectivity or home technology issues may be required to attend on-campus e-learning on their cohort's remote learning days to ensure a consistent ability to attend classes.

General Attendance Expectations

The State of Illinois considers a student excessively absent when absences exceed five percent of the school year. Resurrection College Prep records period by period attendance and considers a student excessively absent when she exceeds 5 absences in any class per semester.

Absences are recorded as excused for the following reasons:

- Illness or hospitalization, documented through a physician's note on his/her office stationery which lists the specific dates necessary for absence;
- Court appearance, documented by a court summons;
- Attendance at the funeral services of an immediate family member;
- Observance of a religious holiday;
- Attendance at the funeral services of a Resurrection classmate;
- Participation in a Resurrection College Prep retreat, field trip, or athletic event.

Please note:* Following a student's extended illness (more than two days), doctor's notes and other documentation must be submitted to the Dean upon the student's return in order for an absence to be considered excluded from the five absences total.

Absences for reasons other than those previously listed are recorded as verified, meaning authorized by the parent for the following reasons:

- Illness;
- Family emergency;
- Circumstances which cause reasonable concern for the safety or health of the student.

Absences are recorded as unexcused for the following reasons:

- Truancy
- Unverified by the parent/guardian 24 hours after the first class missed;
- Misrepresents herself as her parent and calls herself in absent;
- Leaves the school building or campus without checking out through the Main Office.

- The student chose not to attend a class but remained in the school building.

Please Note:* Students and parents are encouraged to make doctor and dental appointments outside of school hours. Scheduling appointments on a regular basis at the same time on a school day negatively impacts a student's progress in the class that she is repeatedly missing. Absences for medical and dental appointments are not excused. Absences for the purpose of a medical appointment will be verified provided that the parent calls.

Excused and verified absences entitle the student to make up all academic work for credit, according to the teacher's policy. It is a student's responsibility to communicate with her teachers about academic work assigned and collected on days of absence and to arrange for the completion of the work. If a student requires assistance with scheduling make-up work due to several days of absence, she can ask her school counselor to help her create a plan for completion of assignments. Parents are also able to contact the counselor and arrange for the pick up of assignments, books and materials when a student's absence exceeds several days.

If a student has an unexcused absence, she forfeits the opportunity to receive credit for class work, tests, quizzes and other assessments. The teacher will not extend help or deadlines. Repeated unexcused absences will result in assignment of detention, as determined by the Dean.

Attendance at Retreats and Masses

Retreats and masses are an integral part of the faith formation program. Attendance at her class level retreat is a graduation requirement for each student. Similarly, students are expected to attend the liturgies scheduled throughout the school year. Students who establish a pattern of missing masses will meet with the Campus Minister.

Multiple absences

- Students who are absent on multiple dates will meet with the Dean and/or their counselor as needed to assist the student in establishing regular attendance.
- Upon the 3rd occurrence of class absence within a semester, a letter will be sent to notify the parent/guardian of the student's dates of absence.
- Upon the 5th occurrence of class absence within a semester, the Dean will contact the parents to discuss attendance-related matters. A meeting with the Dean, parent and student may be scheduled at this time.
- Upon the 6th occurrence of class absence within a semester, a review of absences will be completed by the student's guidance counselor, and Dean to determine an appropriate plan which may include an Academic and/or Behavior Probation. Probation will limit absences and/or tardiness, as warranted and consequences for continued absence jeopardize the student's enrollment at Resurrection College Prep.

Resurrection College Prep is committed to assisting a student in managing her academics when her learning is disrupted for an extended period of time. Assistance through the Assistant Principal/Curriculum could include changing a student's schedule, modifying or lessening her academic load, extending extra time to complete assignments or other interventions when need is indicated by the student's health care provider. Completion of the Chronic Illness form by the student's physician will provide the necessary information to begin developing an assistance plan. If Resurrection College Prep is unable to accommodate the student's needs, her school counselor will work with the student and her parents to determine the student's best options for continuing her education.

Absences and Extra-curricular Activities

A student may not attend any after-school activities on a day that she is absent from school. After-school activities include dances, social events, performances, rehearsals, athletic practices or competitions, club or other school activities.

In cases of extenuating circumstances, permission to attend after-school rehearsals or school events may be given by the Dean or permission to participate in athletic related activities may be given by the Athletic Director. To give consideration to the request, the parent must contact the Dean or Athletic Director prior to the event.

To Report an Absence

The student's parent is required to call the Attendance Office before 9:15 a.m. on the day of the student's absence at 773-467-4618. A parent may leave a voice message to verify his/her daughter's absence during non-school hours.

Additionally:

- If a parent/guardian is unable to report the student's absence, the individuals authorized by the parent/guardian on the Emergency Form may verify the absence.
- If the school is not notified, the school will contact the parent/guardian.
- If a student's illness will require numerous days of absence, her counselor can be contacted to arrange for supportive measures.

Before a student returns to school, medical documentation will be emailed to the Dean of Students or her school counselor. The student will report to the Main Office before 8:15 a.m. to verify her return to school.

Tardiness

A student's learning is negatively impacted by tardiness. Additionally, arriving late to a class disrupts instruction and other students' learning. Students who are more than 15 minutes late to an on campus class will be marked as Absent/Unexcused unless a parent has contacted the Attendance Office. Excessive tardiness to a class may result in other consequences, including, but not limited to, detentions and the inability to attend the class at the time of tardiness.

Late Arrival/Early Dismissal Procedure

Parent verification is necessary for a student to arrive after the school day has begun or to leave school before the end of the school day. Absences from class without parent verification will result in unexcused absences and a loss of academic credit in those classes.

The school expects that dental and doctor appointments are scheduled during non-school hours. However, when an appointment must be scheduled during school hours, the parent must notify the Attendance Office of the time the student will arrive or leave. Upon her return to school, the student must submit a doctor's note verifying the appointment to the Attendance Office. The absence counts as one of the allotted absences per class for the semester.

Early Dismissal Procedures

The student's parent/guardian calls the Attendance Office well in advance of the time the student needs to leave.

- Before leaving class, the student requests an E-hall pass to go to the Main Office
- The student proceeds to the Main Office and checks out there, before leaving the school.
- If the student returns to school on the same day, she reports to the Main Office to check in. If the reason for the early dismissal was for a doctor's appointment, doctor verification is to be emailed to the Dean of Students.

To Obtain a Late Arrival:

- Before the day of late arrival, the student's parent/guardian calls the Attendance Office to request a late arrival.
- When the student arrives at school, she immediately reports to the Main Office. If the reason for the late arrival was due to a doctor's appointment, doctor verification is to be emailed to the Dean of Students.

To Leave School Due to Illness:

Students must go to the Main Office in order to receive early dismissal permission. Early dismissal procedures:

- The student obtains a pass to the Main Office from her teacher.
- The Main Office contacts the student's parents or emergency contact to obtain permission for the student to leave or to arrange for a student to be picked up.
- When the student returns to school, she will report to the Main Office to verify her return to school.

Recurring and Scheduled Early Dismissals:

Students who have an early dismissal for period 4 or 7 listed on their schedule are able to leave school after the third block.

- Students who have a period 4 or 7 study as a result of a schedule change must attend the study until they complete and submit an Early Dismissal form to the Dean.

SCHOOL POLICIESClosed Campus

Resurrection College Prep is a closed campus.

- Once students arrive on campus, they are expected to remain in the school building until the end of their school day.
- Students who have regularly scheduled early dismissals are required to leave the building immediately after their last class.
- If they choose to remain in school, they continue to be in uniform, stay in a supervised area and follow all school rules.

- Additional dance rules, including dress codes, are communicated through the sponsoring organization or level moderator and Dean's Office.

Emergency Information Form

Completion of the Emergency Information Form annually must be submitted to the Main Office prior to the first day of school. The Emergency Information Form supplies updated contact information for the parents or guardians and contact information for adults the parent authorizes the school to contact if the parent is unreachable. This information also provides information to help school staff respond to needs the student may have during the school day.

Between the hours of 8:20 and 3:05 p.m., personal electronic devices are not to be audible or visible as they can disrupt instruction and learning. Only with prior permission of the supervising teacher or staff member may a student use a personal electronic device for educational purposes only. During other times of the school day, personal electronic devices may not be visible or audible. Use of a personal electronic device in hallways, locker rooms, and washrooms or during assemblies, liturgies, retreats, club meetings and other community gatherings, is not permitted.

Students may use their personal communication device before or after school hours and during lunch in the cafeteria or cafeteria lobby.

Personal Electronic devices may be searched and will be returned to their owners at the discretion of the Dean or other administrator. If a student needs to contact her parent during the school day, she has access to phones in the Dean's Office, the student's counselor and in the Main Office.

the Main Office. The phone will be available for pick up in the Main Office after school. The student will be assigned an after school detention through the Dean's Office.

2nd violation – The device is confiscated by the staff member who encounters its unauthorized use. The staff member will give the phone to the Administrative Assistant in the Main Office. The device will be available for pick up in the Main Office after school. The student will be assigned two after-school detentions through the Dean's Office. Prior to serving the second detention, the student must have a Personal Electronic Device Violation form signed by her parent.

3rd and all subsequent violations – The device is confiscated by the staff member who encounters its unauthorized use. The staff member will give the phone to the Administrative Assistant in the Main Office. The student's parent will be required to pick up the phone in the Main Office during school hours. The student will be assigned two after-school detentions through the Dean's Office.

Administration, faculty and staff may request at any time that students turn off and put away technology devices. Failure to do so may result the consequences of a Level II behavior.

STUDENT HEALTH NEEDS

Resurrection College Prep permits students to bring medication that they need to self-administer during the school day and to carry food items that assist them in managing chronic illnesses. The school supports students administering their medications independently and requires that students who have asthma or diabetes carry inhalers, Epi-Pens or blood sugar management systems with them at all times. A student with health needs must present health plans and other documentation, including the school's Parent and Physician Request for Self-Medication forms. The forms are available in the Main Office.

These forms are completed by the student's physician and her parents prior to the student beginning to administer her prescription medication during the school day.

- The plans provide medication names, dosages, medication times and other pertinent information regarding the management of the illness during the school day.
- All students who have asthma, diabetes or another chronic illness are to wear identification that alerts staff and emergency responders to their medical condition.
- Thereafter, the documentation must be updated at the beginning of each school year and prior to any changes in the medication, dosage or administration of the medicine.

Students and their parents will meet with the student's guidance counselor and medical forms that will outline health plans, as prescribed by the student's physician. The parents and student are responsible for providing the medications, which are to be in the original prescription containers bearing the student's name, physician and dosage information. Students are responsible for the administration of their medication.

Medications and food items may be stored in the Student Services. Refrigeration for medication is available there. Students may also request that food items be kept in their classrooms. These arrangements can be made through the help of the student's guidance counselor or the Dean.

As a Catholic Institution, Resurrection is committed to promoting the sanctity and dignity of all human life. While sex outside of marriage is contrary to the moral life of the Church, teenage pregnancy is nonetheless a serious reality. Resurrection will maintain its promise to educate women in Charity and Truth. A pregnant student may attend school until her doctors recommend otherwise. Please refer to the student attendance policy for additional information regarding extended absences. A student pregnancy requires thoughtful discernment which may involve her school counselor, the administration, and the campus minister. Each case will be treated individually, based on the age and grade of the student, her physical and emotional health, the stage of the pregnancy and other relevant factors. An unmarried student may return to school after the birth of her child and clearance from her doctor.

Medication Policy

If it is necessary for a student to take medication during the school day, medication authorization orders must be completed prior to bringing the medicine to school. These forms are available in the Main Office or from a school counselor.

- Parents are encouraged to consult with their daughter's physician to make every effort to adjust medication schedules so that medication may be administered at home during non-school hours.
- A physician's order and signature will be required for the school to hold both prescription and over-the-counter medications. Any prescription medication taken at school shall be brought to the Main Office in a container labeled by the pharmacist which clearly states the student's name and dosage. A completed Medication Authorization Form signed by the physician and parent must be brought with the prescribed medication. The physician must renew the prescription medication given at school and complete the Medication Authorization Form annually.

- All non-prescription medications must be brought to the Main Office in a manufacturer-labeled container. The parent must have completed and signed the Parental Non-prescription Medication Authorization Form before the non-prescription medication can be accepted.
- The Medication Authorization Form must also be completed and on file in the Main Office for students who have permission by the physician and parents to self-administer inhalers, EpiPen/ Benadryl or diabetic medication.
- Students carry their inhalers, Epi-Pens and diabetic testing and insulin administration with them at all times.

- No medications are provided or administered by Resurrection College Prep staff. Students must be able to self-administer all medications.

Illness

Students are to remain at home when ill, when the illness is contagious or a physician indicates that the student's illness prohibits her from attending school. If a student becomes ill at school, she must notify her teacher and get a pass to the Main Office. If the student needs assistance, the teacher will contact the Main Office and an administrator will come to the classroom to assist the student. Students leaving school during the school day must be authorized to leave through the Main Office. The Main Office will contact the student's parent, guardian or the designated adult to determine whether the student is too ill to remain at school. If a student is unable to attend classes, she must go home after her parents are contacted.

The student's parent, guardian or responsible adult designates when and with whom a student leaves the school. If the student drives or leaves alone, the parent or designated responsible adult must approve this. A student will not be sent home in the custody of another student unless the student is her sister.

Following any contagious or infectious disease, the student must bring a statement from a physician that she is recovered enough to be able to return to school. Students with contagious eye infections or other contagious health concerns will be sent home from school. A doctor's note stating the student may return to school is required.

Accidents or serious illness

School staff will notify the paramedics immediately when any accident or illness is serious enough to require medical attention. The Main Office will notify the parent, guardian or responsible adult.

Concussion Policy:

Return-to-Learn and Return-to-Play

In compliance with the Illinois Youth Sports Concussion Safety Act, Resurrection College Prep High School will follow Return-to-Learn and, for athletes, Return-to-Play protocols to ensure all students who experience a concussion receive necessary support.

Concussion Oversight Team

The concussion oversight team will consist of a physician affiliated with the Athletic department, Resurrection's athletic trainer, Resurrection's athletic director, Resurrection's concussion case manager, and Resurrection's Dean of Students. The athletic trainer will serve as the return-to-play manager, and the concussion case manager will serve as the overall case manager, including managing return-to-learn procedures. The goal of the concussion oversight team is to have a central point of communication in the case manager, who will be knowledgeable of, and able to communicate all aspects of student needs during a concussion.

Preventative Process:

1. Students/Parents wanting to participate in Resurrection athletics must sign the concussion form.
2. Students/Parents wanting to participate in Resurrection athletics must attend the pre-season parent meeting where the Athletic Trainer will discuss concussions and the return-to-play protocol.
3. Student athletes must watch the IHSA concussion video and sign a waiver confirming they viewed the video before participating in their sport.
4. All Resurrection coaches must pass the IHSA concussion test, certifying them to take the lead in the event of a concussion if the Athletic Trainer is not present. Coaches are expected to remove a student from play if she has had an injury to the head, until it can be thoroughly evaluated by a licensed health professional.

Concussion Policy:

Students with a suspected concussion are required to seek an evaluation from a qualified physician familiar with concussion management. If a student is seeking a concussion evaluation from a physician, families must obtain a School-Based Concussion Recommendation (SBCR) form from the Concussion Case Manager, Athletic Trainer, Athletic Director, or School Counselor for the physician to complete. If school staff suspects symptoms of a concussion, based on student report, the school can mandate a doctor evaluation. Once the student has been diagnosed with a concussion by a licensed physician, she will be referred to the Concussion Case Manager.

For school accommodations to be considered, a SBCR form documenting the concussion diagnosis, academic restrictions and plans for further evaluation should be completed by the evaluating physician and returned to Resurrection's Concussion Case Manager.

A student whose SBCR indicates academic restrictions, such as no tests or quizzes, may not participate in Resurrection athletics and may be restricted from other activities, per her physician. A student may not participate in athletics until Resurrection's Athletic Trainer follows the return-to-play protocol and the student is cleared to resume her sport. If at any time symptoms of a concussion return, the student will revert to the previous step in the return-to-play protocol.

The case manager will follow up with the student and family to gather information about the student's current level of functioning in the school setting.

If a student is declared symptom free within 10 school days, the student and case manager will coordinate the academic make-up work. If academic restrictions extended beyond 10 school days, the student will be considered for additional academic support.

Return-to-Learn Framework

Adopted from Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago- Institute for Sports Medicine
To initiate the Return-to-Learn protocol, the student must be evaluated by a licensed healthcare professional and documentation provided to the school outlining cognitive and physical restrictions. The protocol should emphasize allowing the student to participate in the school day in a modified fashion so as not to worsen symptoms. Determining "how much is too much" may be a trial and error process. The student should be granted adequate time to complete missed academic work following recovery. The student should report to her case manager or school liaison regularly in order to monitor symptoms and assess how the student is tolerating specific school accommodations, as well as assess how teachers and staff are implementing the modified learning plan.

Phase 1: No School/Complete Cognitive and Physical Rest:

In this phase, the student may experience high levels of symptoms that prohibit the student benefiting from school attendance and may cause symptoms to increase in intensity. During this stage, physical symptoms tend to be the most prominent and may interfere with even basic daily tasks. Many students are unable to tolerate being in the school environment due to severe headache, dizziness or sensitivity to light or noise.

- Emphasis on cognitive and physical rest to allow the brain and body to rest as much as possible.
- No School - Avoid activities that exacerbate symptoms. Activities that commonly trigger symptoms include reading, video games, computer use, texting, television, and/or loud music.
- No physical activity- this includes anything that increases the heart rate as this may worsen or trigger additional symptoms.
- No tests, quizzes or homework - Provide students with copies of class notes.

Phase 2: Part-Time School Attendance with Accommodations:

In this phase, the student's symptoms have decreased to manageable levels. Symptoms may be exacerbated by certain cognitive activities that are complex or of long duration. Often students can do cognitive activities but only for very short periods of time (5-15 minutes) so frequent breaks to rest and "recharge their batteries" are needed.

- Re-introduction to school.- Avoid environments and tasks that trigger or worsen symptoms. In the first few days of returning to school the goal is not to immediately start catching up on the missed work or learn new material. Rather the initial goal is simply to make sure the student can tolerate the school environment without worsening symptoms. This means the first few days often include just sitting in class and listening (no note-taking or reading). Once the student can tolerate this, she can try short intervals (5-15 minutes) of cognitive work per class. Again, determining how much is too much is a trial and error process. Student may begin with half days in school, or rest in the nurse's office, library or quiet location in between classes.

- Symptoms reported by the student should be addressed with specific accommodations, reading and other visual stimuli, based on the student's symptoms. Provide student with copies of class notes (teacher or student generated) No tests or quizzes. Homework load based on symptoms. There should be no due dates on homework assignments. This allows students to work at a pace that does not exacerbate symptoms and reduces their anxiety about completing missed assignments. Many students have heightened anxiety during concussion recovery and due dates exacerbate this. Allow the student to leave class a few minutes early to avoid noisy, crowded hallways between class changes. No physical activity including gym, PE or participation in athletics.

Phase 3: Full-Day Attendance with Accommodations:

In this phase, the student's symptoms are decreased in both number and severity. They may have intervals during the day when they are symptom-free. Symptoms may still be exacerbated by certain activities.

- As the student improves, gradually increase demands on the brain by increasing the amount, length of time, and difficulty of academic requirements, as long as this does not worsen symptoms.
- Continue to prioritize assignments, tests and projects; limit students to one test per day or every other day with extra time to complete tests to allow for breaks as needed based on symptom severity.
- Continue to prioritize in-class learning; minimize overall workload. Gradually increase amount of homework.
- Reported symptoms should be addressed by specific accommodations; accommodations can be reduced or eliminated as symptoms resolve.

- No physical activity unless specifically prescribed by the student's medical physician.
- No contact sports are allowed until the student is completely symptom free, completing full days at school and requires no academic modifications (determined by the Concussion Case Manager), and has received written clearance from a licensed health care professional.

At this phase, the Return-to-Play Protocol can begin.*

Phase 4: Full-Day Attendance without

Accommodations: In this phase, the student may report no symptoms or may experience mild symptoms that are intermittent. Accommodations are removed when student can participate fully in academic work at school and at home without triggering symptoms.

If necessary, case manager will help construct a reasonable step-wise plan to complete missed academic work; an extended period of time is recommended in order to minimize stress. Physical activities as specified by student's physician (same as phase 3)

Phase 5: Full School and Extracurricular

Involvement: No symptoms are present. The student is consistently tolerating full school days and their typical academic load without triggering any concussion related symptoms. No accommodations are needed. Before returning to physical education and/or sports, the student should receive written clearance and complete a return-to-play progression as indicated by the Resurrection Concussion Policy.

BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS

Proper conduct on the part of each Resurrection College Prep student is necessary to establish an environment that allows growth and learning for all students.

At the heart of the Student Code of Conduct is the philosophy that a student's spiritual development gives her the foundation to make a difference in her school, family, and community. Resurrection students are taught to embody the school motto Caritate et Veritate (Charity and Truth).

All students will strive to listen, reflect, discern, forgive, ask for forgiveness and be open to learning. Embracing a commitment to fostering a harmonious relationship with classmates and their school community, the Resurrection College Prep student will use reason to guide decisions which affect her behavior and her response to the behaviors of her peers. She will seek to develop a moral compass which will guide her to be a responsible and compassionate member of our school community.

Resurrection College Prep expects students to follow school regulations, obey all directions, be diligent in study and respectful to all students, teachers and others in authority. Every student has the right to be educated in a safe, respectful and welcoming environment. Every educator has the right to teach in an atmosphere free from disruption and obstacles that impede student learning. Thus, behavior expectations include that each student

- Be present each day, on time and prepared to learn;
- Be respectful, conducting herself in a manner that guarantees the well-being of other students and staff and respects the rights of those in the school neighborhood;
- Be mindful that her behavior reflects on herself and Resurrection College Prep;
- Be aware that her behavior must not disrupt learning and teaching;
- Be responsible by taking care of school materials, equipment and facilities, by leaving shared spaces clean and in good order and by taking care of personal belongings.

The Administration reserves the right to waive and/or deviate from any and all disciplinary regulations for just cause. The Principal may expel students immediately in cases of extreme misconduct. This includes the immediate removal of a student if her presence in school constitutes what is believed to be a threat or if she is involved in any criminal activities.

Teachers will communicate their expectations regarding classroom behavior, routines and procedures. If a student's behavior does not meet established expectations, a teacher will speak with the student individually to identify the behavior that must change, clarify how the behavior is inconsistent with classroom expectations and warn the student. If the student repeats unacceptable behavior, a teacher may assign a 30-minute after-school detention to be served in her/his classroom and will contact the student's parent to discuss the unacceptable behavior. If a student's behavior continues beyond these interventions, the teacher will refer the student to the Dean.

The Behavior Review Board reserves the right to schedule a meeting with a student at its discretion. The Dean informs the student when she must meet with the Behavior Review Board. Her attendance is mandatory.

Through this process, the offending student(s) will meet with anyone impacted by the inappropriate behavior to restore the relationship within the school community and move everyone forward in a positive direction.

Social Media is defined as any electronic tool that allows for social, interactive, and connective communication and learning, allowing for but not limited to: (a) video and photo sharing, (b) social networking, (c) blogging, (d) use of a wiki, (e) instant messaging or texting, and (f) web conferencing.

Social media tools are valuable as curricular resources and as part of a larger communication network that fosters education and personal growth. The principles of respect and reverence for every person, the development of the community and the ideals of a Resurrection College Prep are at the core of our educational programs. Interacting with people online is no different than interacting with individuals face-to-face; therefore, students are expected to act respectfully and with dignity when communicating through social media.

Students must understand that they are accountable for their postings and other electronic communications. Social media activities may be visible to current, past, or prospective students, parents, and community members; and accordingly, students must exercise discretion when using social media for personal communication, as these communications represent the student and the school.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Resurrection College Prep strives to offer a supportive environment that proactively addresses the challenges alcohol and drugs pose for our students. The school's policy places a priority on providing a learning environment for all our students that is safe and drug-free. To balance the needs of the individual with the needs of the school community, the Alcohol and Other Drugs policy centers on a school response that is timely, confidential, and proactive.

Students and parents are encouraged to bring their concerns regarding the use of alcohol and other drugs to the attention of the student's school counselor or any member of the administration. We will provide support and information to help the student and her parents identify the best options to address their concerns.

Resurrection College Prep is committed to an alcohol and drug-free school community. Therefore, it is a violation of student behavior expectations when a student possesses alcohol, illegal drugs or controlled substances, including prescribed medications or is under the influence such. Students are also in violation of this policy for possession of any alcohol or drug-related paraphernalia. These expectations apply during school hours and at all school events, both on and off campus.

Possession or being under the influence of such substances will result in an appropriate school response through the Dean's Office:

- The student's parent(s) will be contacted to meet with the Dean, Guidance Counselor and/or Principal. If the student is an athlete, the Athletic Director will attend the meeting, as well.
- Following the meeting, the student will receive an evaluation for alcohol or drug use from a school-approved medical agency immediately following the meeting, at her expense. She will be required to follow the recommendations of the agency.

The student will be placed on probation. If found to violate the Alcohol and Other Drug Policy for a second time, the student and her parent(s) will meet with the Principal and Dean. The Principal will determine the school response to the student, which includes but is not limited to:

- An updated evaluation and revised behavior contract
- A meeting with the Behavioral Review Board which will recommend a school response to the Principal
- suspension or dismissal from Resurrection College Prep.

Students found in possession or control of any illegal substance or prescription medicine with the intent to sell or distribute will result in an out-of-school suspension pending Principal review of the incident. As required by the School Reporting of Drug Violations Act [105 ILCS 127], Resurrection College Prep will report instances of drug violations to local law enforcement officers.

Students and parents who opt to withdraw from Resurrection College Prep prior to or without completing all school requirements in association with the Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy do so with the understanding that the student is withdrawing under suspension for violation of this policy. Disciplinary information and information regarding the violation of Resurrection College Prep's Alcohol/Drugs Policy will be provided to the receiving school.

Breathalyzer Testing: On Resurrection College Prep campus or any school-sponsored activities off campus, an administrator is authorized to require students to submit to a breathalyzer test when alcohol consumption is suspected.

Refusal to cooperate with the Breathalyzer testing will result in parent contact, removal from the school or school-sponsored event and a mandatory meeting with the Dean and Principal. The student is suspended, out-of-school, until the meeting occurs. Realistic consequences for refusal to comply include but are not limited to: mandatory counseling/drug treatment, academic and behavior probation contract or expulsion from Resurrection.

BULLYING AND HARASSMENT

Bullying, intimidation, and harassment diminish a student's ability to learn and the school's ability to educate. Resurrection College Prep is committed to fostering a learning environment in which all students feel respected and safe. Harassment or bullying based on actual or perceived race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age, and physical or mental disability is a violation of state and federal laws. Additionally, harassment or bullying of others based on their association with a person or group with one or more of the aforementioned actual or perceived characteristics violates state and federal laws.

Harassment or bullying of any community members is considered a serious violation of Resurrection College Prep's behavior code. Harassment and bullying behaviors result in an intimidating and hostile educational environment. Such behavior may be physical, verbal, written, visual, non-verbal and / or sexual.

Examples of harassing and bullying behavior include, but are not limited to, name-calling, using derogatory slurs, stalking, sexual violence, causing emotional harm, threatening or causing physical harm, unwanted physical contact, and intimidating threats, threatened or actual destruction of property, or wearing or possessing items depicting or implying hatred or prejudice of one of the characteristics stated above. Verbal harassment includes, but is not limited to, spreading rumors and asking a community member highly personal questions are also considered forms of harassment.

A reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of bullying is prohibited. A student's act of reprisal or retaliation will be treated as bullying for purposes of determining any consequences or other appropriate remedial actions.

A student will not be punished for reporting bullying or supplying information, even if the school's investigation concludes that no bullying occurred. However, knowingly making a false accusation or providing knowingly false information will be treated as a serious behavioral offense. These behaviors are prohibited in each of the following situations:

- While in school, on school property, on school buses, or at school-sponsored or school-sanctioned events or activities that are either on or off of the Resurrection College Prep campus;
- Through the transmission of information from a school computer, a school computer network, or other similar electronic school equipment;
- Through the transmission of information from a computer that is accessed at a non-school-related location, activity, function, or program or from the use of technology or an electronic device that is not owned, leased, or used by Resurrection College Prep if the behavior causes a substantial disruption to the educational process or order and operation of the school.

Bullying includes cyber-bullying (bullying through the use of technology or any electronic communication) and means any severe or pervasive physical or verbal act or conduct, including communications made in writing or electronically, directed toward a student or students that has or can be reasonably predicted to have the effect of one or more of the following:

- Placing the student in reasonable fear of harm to her person or property;
- Causing a substantially detrimental effect on the student's physical or mental health;
- Substantially interfering with the student's academic performance; or

- Substantially interfering with the student's ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities or privileges provided by Resurrection College Prep.

Any student who engages in harassment and/or bullying behavior will be subject to disciplinary sanctions which may include, but are not limited to verbal reprimand, parent/Dean/Principal conference, suspension from classes and expulsion from Resurrection College Prep.

Students are encouraged to immediately report bullying. A report may be made orally or in writing to the Dean of Students or any staff member with whom the student is comfortable speaking. Anyone, including staff members and parents or guardians, who has information about actual or threatened bullying is encouraged to report it to the Dean of Students or any member of the Administration.

Reports can be made by

- filing an anonymous bullying/harassment report. Use the link on the school website.
- calling school administration at 773-467-4613

This is considered a Level IV behavior and consequences associated with this level apply. All behaviors that violate city, state and federal laws will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

WEAPONS POLICY

Students are forbidden to possess, handle, transmit or use any instrument in the school, on school grounds or at any school-related event off-campus, which is considered a weapon and/or incendiary or explosive device. Students will be in violation of this rule if they have these weapons or devices in their car parked on campus. Examples include, but are not limited to, knives, any type of gun, electrical zappers, chains, metal knuckles, fireworks, explosives or other chemicals. Weapons and look-alikes will be confiscated, and law enforcement will be immediately contacted. Illinois law states that possessing a bludgeon, metal knuckles, knives or tear gas is a Class 4 felony.

Students who violate this policy will be subject to immediate suspension. Pending investigation by the Principal, proceedings for dismissal from Resurrection College Prep will begin immediately.

OTHER BEHAVIORS

Off- campus behavior

Off-campus behavior that contributes to on-campus conflicts or violation of school rules will be addressed by the Dean's Office. Additionally, behavior outside of school reflects on the reputation of the school. A pattern of student inappropriate off-campus behavior will result in consequences that may impact continued enrollment or other disciplinary sanctions, as warranted to maintain a safe and respectful school environment.

Tobacco Use and Possession

Federal Law and the City of Chicago ordinance prohibit possession and use of any tobacco and tobacco-related products at Resurrection College Prep. Tobacco product means any product in leaf, flake, plug, liquid, or any other form, containing nicotine derived from tobacco, which product is intended to enable human consumption of the tobacco or nicotine, whether chewed, smoked, absorbed, dissolved, inhaled, snorted, sniffed, or ingested by any other means. The act of smoking is defined to include possessing lit smoking materials, holding cigarettes or cigars or preparing to smoke. Students may not be in possession of any tobacco product, e-cigarettes, vaping pens and related paraphernalia, on school grounds or within 1 mile of school property. Electronic cigarette means any electronically actuated device which in operation causes the user to exhale any smoke, vapor, or other substance other than those produced by unenanced human exhalation. "Electronic cigarette" includes any such device, whether manufactured, distributed, marketed, or sold as an electronic cigarette, an electronic cigar, an electronic cigarillo, an electronic pipe, an electronic hookah, or under any other product name or descriptor. Students violating this rule will have their tobacco product or paraphernalia confiscated. Consequences include parent notification and a possible one-day, in-school suspension.

SECURITY AND SAFETY

Safe and Respectful Environment

Resurrection College Prep High School strives to provide a safe, secure, and respectful environment for young women entrusted to its care. Students are to report any instances where they have experienced a breach in safety and security or any situations in which they feel unsafe. Such reporting can be made to a school counselor, the Dean or another member of Administration.

Building Security

Building security is highly important and everyone's responsibility. Therefore, everyone is strongly encouraged to alert a school staff member to anything that is unusual or suspicious. If you see something, say something. As a reminder, all visitors must enter through the Main Office. Doors are never to be opened for visitors — signs on outer doors direct visitors to the Main Office.

Building Access

- The school building is open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
- Students entering the building before school are to use door #1 by the Main Entrance.
- Students are to use only door #8 to exit the building.
- Other doors are not to be used as exits. Exiting the building through the #5 and #6 doors will lead to an enclosed, locked area of the campus which offers no ability to leave that area.

Therefore, doors #5 and #6 are to be used only in an emergency situation.

- Students remaining in school after the school day ends are to be under the direct supervision of a faculty or staff member.
- The academic area of the building closes at 4:15 p.m. This area will be locked. Therefore, students will not have access to their lockers after 4:15 p.m.
- Students are encouraged to have their rides pick them up before 3:30 p.m. Students waiting for a ride after 2:30 p.m. are to wait outside the Main Office by door #1.

Deliveries to Students

For the safety of students, only parents may drop off sack lunches, books or other items necessary for the school day in the Main Office. The Main Office staff will notify the student to pick up the items left there for her. Deliveries to students of flowers, gifts or food from commercial restaurants are not accepted by the Main Office Staff for students.

Emergency Drills

The school regularly conducts mandatory safety drills. Students are expected to remain quiet and follow directions of the staff. Drill procedures and evacuation routes are posted in every classroom.

School Closings/ Late Start

Should severe weather conditions warrant that Resurrection College Prep is closed or following a late start schedule, a call from school through the SchoolMessenger program will be sent to students' home phone numbers. Additionally, students are advised to view Schoology, the school Facebook page and the school's website, as well as listen to radio/TV stations.

Occasionally, severe inclement weather or an emergency requires the closing of school before the expected dismissal time. In the event of such a closing, students will be advised to call their parents. The school also will send a message to students' parents through the SchoolMessenger system.

Visitors

Resurrection College Prep and its grounds are considered private property. Access is granted to currently enrolled students, employees, and those with legitimate school business. All visitors must enter the building through the main entrance and go directly to the Main Office. Those with legitimate business will receive visitor passes. Students from other high schools will not be allowed to visit during the school day.

School Counselors

School Counselors are available from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. each school day.

In conjunction with the overall philosophy of Resurrection College Prep, the School Counselor aids in the development of each student to her fullest potential. School Counselors promote the academic, social/personal, and college/career development of each student. Students generally are assigned the same school counselor for a four-year period.

The role of the school counselor is to help each student make a successful transition into high school and to plan an academic program suited to her individual needs and academic goals. Counselors help students recognize their strengths, identify interests, explore possibilities, and accept personal responsibility. Counselors encourage students to develop the skills necessary to make wise choices as they actively engage in decision-making and/or problem-solving process. The College counselor guides juniors and seniors through the college application process and provide information on scholarships and financial aid.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Information about the variety of athletic opportunities for Resurrection College Prep students can be found on the school website at Athletic Department Handbook. All athletes are expected to follow the Athletic Code of Conduct, as well as policies outlined in the Student and Parent Handbook. The IHSA Policies can be also found on its website www.IHSA.org

Co-Curriculars

Resurrection College Prep supports student clubs and organizations, recognizing them as an important component of the school's co-curricular educational program. The school's mission is furthered by clubs and organizations which

- provide student leadership development;
- encourage participation in service opportunities;
- identify and foster students' God-given talents through each club's activities;
- allow students to meet peers who share similar interests, thereby promoting positive social interactions.

Club offerings are determined by

- support of the school's mission and appropriateness of the club focus;
- sufficient student interest in the club;
- availability of adult leadership with formal education and/or sufficient experience to qualify them to oversee the club's activities and learning of the members.

- Enrollment in Co-curriculars
- Students may join up to three clubs that meet during Activity Days throughout the school year (one club per Activity Day).
- Membership is annual. The only carryover of members from the preceding year is the officers who were elected the preceding spring.
- Club sign-up is held at the beginning of each school year.
- Each club has a specified number of members it can register, determined by the club's moderator.
- The minimum number of student members required for a club is 10.
- Students are expected to attend all the meetings for the co-curriculars in which she is a member. Missing more than one club meeting may result in a student's removal from the club without any refund of dues.
- Students may be removed from a club if the moderator believes the student's behavior during meetings is disruptive or disrespectful.

Dues

Each club establishes dues to cover the cost of materials for club activities and other purposes. Club moderators and the officers determine the method of collection.

Proposing a new co-curricular activity

Students or staff interested in beginning a new club propose the club to the Dean of Students. The club proposal would show that the club has a purpose consistent with the mission of the school and that there is sufficient student interest in forming the new club. Approval of the club is based on availability of a qualified moderator and room in the club rotation.

Termination of a co-curricular activity

A club will not be offered for the school year under the following circumstances:

- if membership is less than 10 members
- if a qualified moderator has not applied to moderate the organization

Student Leadership

It is considered a privilege to serve the school in a leadership capacity. Student leaders are expected to exhibit exemplary behavior and serve as role models. Therefore, student leaders who engage in any serious misconduct on or off campus, at any time, will resign their position. Serious misconduct includes, but is not limited to, violation of the school's academic dishonesty policy, alcohol/drug, and bullying policies. Officers also will be required to resign their position if they are placed on Academic Probation.

Election of Officers

Each co-curricular is to elect students as leaders. Elections are to be held in the spring of each school year.

Students seeking any office or leadership position must have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 for students from Class of 2018 from the semester immediately preceding the nomination/election. Students from the Classes of 2019, 2020 and 2021 must have a 2.0 cumulative GPA from the semester immediately preceding the election. Some organizations may require higher grade and eligibility requirements which the student needs to know before running for an office.

Leadership positions may include

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Public Relations
- Other titles as relevant to the club
- Organizations may fill the offices they find necessary for their purpose.

Removal of an officer:

Officers who are not fulfilling the responsibilities of their office will be notified of the areas in which improvement is needed through a meeting with the moderator and in writing. The discussion will include the specific responsibilities which the officer must improve and the time frame in which the improvements must be made.

If an officer does not improve in fulfilling the responsibilities of her office, she will be notified in writing by the Dean of Students and the Club Moderator that she is being removed from a leadership position. She may still participate in the club as a general member.

If necessary, an election will be held to fill the vacant office.
