

Title I Parents' Right to Know

Eastern Carver County Schools receives federal funds for Title I programs. The No Child Left Behind Act requires school districts to notify parents of a student in a Title I school that they have the right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of their student's classroom teachers.

Parents of students in a Title I schools may request the following information concerning their child's classroom teacher.

- Whether or not the teacher has met state qualifications and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction;
- Whether the teacher is teaching under a variance;
- The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree; and
- Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

Parents who would like to receive this information should contact Dr. Jim O'Connell at 952-556-6251.

Eastern Carver County School District is proud of their Title I classroom teachers which are properly licensed and highly qualified.
