2. Removal from Class/In-School Suspension

2.1 Definitions

- 2.1.1 Removal from class or removal – any actions taken by a teacher, principal or other district employee to prohibit a student from attending a class period or activity period for a period of time not to exceed five days.
- 2.1.2 In-school suspension – any actions taken by a teacher, principal or other district employee to prohibit a student from attending more than one class and/or activity period, not to exceed five days. Individual schools may provide restorative programming during in-school suspension.
- 2.1.3 Class period or activity period – a block of time devoted to one subject area or activity.

2.2 Process

- 2.2.1 A student may be removed from a class period or activity period, or receive in-school suspension after the teacher consults with and receives approval from the principal or his or her designee. Documentation shall be made of the removal or in-school suspension and its basis.
- 2.2.2 A student who engages in assaultive or violent behavior in the classroom must be removed from class immediately and may be subject to other disciplinary responses. The removal from the classroom shall be for a period of time deemed appropriate by the administrator, in consultation with the teacher.
- 2.2.3 Classroom rules must be reviewed at the beginning of each grading period or as new students enroll. A mechanism to review the classroom rules for students who were absent when the rules were reviewed must be implemented by each teacher. A student who violates classroom rules may be subject to any or all of the following interventions:
  - 2.2.3.1 The teacher shares specific concerns with the student and suggests positive alternatives to the student;

- 2.2.3.2 If the problem continues, the student's parent or guardian must be contacted by the teacher (a telephone contact may be initiated at any step in the process);
    - 2.2.3.3 The teacher will contact the student's counselor or administrator. The teacher, counselor or administrator and student will discuss the inappropriate behaviors. If the need is determined for a referral to the Child Study Team, the counselor or administrator will submit the referral, and/or
    - 2.2.3.4 An informal administrative conference will be held with the student, teacher and administrator, and a decision will be made regarding the student's removal from class or in-school suspension if the problem persists.
  - 2.3 The decision for removal or in-school suspension, and the length of time of the removal or suspension will be made by the administrator. The student will be notified verbally. The parent(s) or guardian(s) will be notified by telephone or first class U.S. mail.
    - 2.3.1 The student will be removed from class or receive in-school suspension without an informal administrative conference if he or she exhibits willful conduct which materially and substantially disrupts the right of others to an education or willful conduct which endangers district employees, the student or other students or school property.
    - 2.3.2 The school retains custody of the student during the period of removal from class or in-school suspension. The administrator is responsible for the student who has been removed from class or suspended.
    - 2.3.3 Students will return to class upon completion of the removal or suspension period.
    - 2.3.4 After a student has been removed from class more than 10 times in one school year, the school shall notify and meet with the student's parent or guardian to discuss the problem that is causing the student to be removed from class.
- 3. Suspension (Out-of-School) – The administration may suspend a student from school when necessary. Before any out-of-school suspension begins, the school administration will contact a parent or guardian of the student to be suspended.
  - 3.1 Suspension from School (Out-of-School Suspension) for One Day or Less – When a student is suspended from school for one day or less, the student and his or her parent or guardian shall be notified about his or her suspension at or before the time the suspension is to take effect except where it appears that the student will create an immediate and substantial danger to self or to surrounding persons or property.
  - 3.2 Suspension from School (Out-of-School Suspension) for More Than One Day
    - 3.2.1 Definition – “Suspension” means an action taken by the school administration, under rules promulgated by the School Board (refer to Administrative Regulation 503.3AR, Student Behavior Expectations and Responses for Behavior), prohibiting a student from attending school for a period of no more than 10 school days. (This definition does not apply to dismissal from school for one school day or less.)
    - 3.2.2 Before out-of-school suspension begins, the school administration shall attempt to provide alternative educational services except where it appears that the student will create an immediate and substantial danger to self or to surrounding persons or property.

- 3.2.3 When a student is suspended for more than one day, the student shall have an informal administrative conference before the suspension, except where it appears that the student will create an immediate and substantial danger to self or to surrounding persons or property, in which case the conference shall take place as soon as practicable following the suspension.
- 3.2.3.1 At or before the informal administrative conference, a school administrator shall notify the student of the grounds for the suspension and provide an explanation of the evidence the authorities have, and the student may present the student's version of the facts.
- 3.2.3.2 The following documents shall be personally served upon the student at or before the time the suspension is to take effect, and upon the student's parent or guardian by U.S. mail within 48 hours of the conference:
- 3.2.3.2.1 A written notice containing the grounds for suspension (Procedure 503.3.2P, Notice of Suspension, Grades 6-12 or 503.3.2.1P, Notice of Suspension, Grades K-5);

(Alternative educational services may include, but are not limited to: special tutoring, modified curriculum, modified instruction, other modifications or adaptations, instruction through electronic media, special education services as indicated by appropriate assessment, homebound instruction, supervised homework, or enrollment in another district or in an alternative learning center selected to allow the student to progress toward meeting graduation requirements.)
- 3.2.3.3 If a student's total days of removal from school exceeds 10 cumulative days in a school year, the district shall make reasonable attempts to convene a meeting with the student and the student's parent or guardian prior to removing the student from school and, with the permission of the parent or guardian, arrange for a mental health screening for the student. The district will not pay for the assessment unless it is part of an assessment for special education purposes. The purpose of the meeting shall be to attempt to determine the student's need for assessment, other services or whether the parent or guardian should have the student assessed to determine whether the student needs treatment for a mental health disorder.
- 3.2.3.4 The district shall make reasonable efforts to notify the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the suspension by telephone as soon as possible following suspension.
- 3.2.3.5 In the event a student is suspended without an informal administrative conference on the grounds that the student will create an immediate and substantial danger to self or to surrounding persons or property, the written notice shall be served upon the student and the student's parent(s) or guardian(s) by U.S. mail within 48 hours of the conference. Service by U.S. mail is complete upon mailing. A copy will be retained as a record by the administrator.

3.2.3.6 The school may involve appropriate outside assistance, such as law enforcement personnel, as necessary.

3.3 Consecutive Suspensions – Suspension may not be consecutively imposed against the same student for the same course of conduct or incident of misconduct except in the following circumstances:

3.3.2 When the district is in the process of initiating an expulsion, in which case the school administration may extend the suspension up to a total of 15 days.

3.3.3 A separate administrative conference is required for each period of suspension.

3.4 Notice of Right to be Reinstated – Whenever a student fails to return to school within 10 days of the termination of dismissal, a school administrator shall inform the student and his or her parent(s) or guardian(s) by U.S. mail of the student's right to attend and to be reinstated in the public school.

3.5 A student enrolled in a preschool or prekindergarten program, including a child participating in early childhood family education, school readiness, school readiness plus, voluntary prekindergarten, Head Start, or other school-based preschool or prekindergarten program, may not be subject to suspension from school. Expulsions and exclusions of preschool or prekindergarten students may be used only after other nonexclusionary disciplinary options have been exhausted and only in circumstances where there is an ongoing serious safety threat to the child or others. For purposes of preschool and prekindergarten discipline, nonexclusionary discipline must include at least one of the following:

3.5.1 collaborating with the student's family or guardian, child mental health consultant or provider, education specialist, or other community-based support;

3.5.2 creating a plan, written with the parent or guardian, that details the action and support needed for the student to fully participate in a preschool or prekindergarten program; or
