

PNACAC IS HERE FOR YOU

Fall 2020 Virtual College Fairs

The Pacific Northwest Association for College Admission Counseling (PNACAC) is here to support you in helping your students plan for their future. We are pleased to announce our virtual college fair opportunities for fall:

Washington student week - Oct 19 - 23

During this week, college representatives will be standing by, ready to meet you and the students and families that you serve. From live presentations on financial aid and how to write your application essay, to text chat, videos and downloadable college materials, this virtual experience will allow your students to explore, learn and connect with colleges and universities from around the country (and world!).

Encourage your students to register in advance then login to explore 145 colleges. The event website and recordings will be available until December 31, 2020.
