COVID Statement: Due to the ongoing international pandemic, fewer than 50% of the Class of 2021 had taken the SAT or ACT as of August 1, 2020. As a result we will not be posting test scores for the class. We opened our school year, in person, on August 17, 2020. We plan to be online for the last two weeks of the first semester and the first week of the second semester.

CURRICULUM All students follow a standard curriculum of core academic classes. Advanced Placement and Honors courses are not offered as a reflection of our belief that students learn best through cooperative work in heterogeneous classes. However, the level of our standard curriculum is such that a number of students do choose to take AP exams. Most common exams include Calculus (AB/BC level) and English Literature. Course descriptions are available at www.sasweb.org/academics.

Enrollment at the University of the South in courses for credit is available to qualified juniors and seniors if their schedule and university enrollments allow.

INDEPENDENT STUDY, under the guidance of a faculty sponsor, is an option for qualified juniors and seniors who submit proposals that clearly demonstrate objectives and academic substance.

LEADERSHIP is developed through clubs, afternoon programs, and school committees. Elected positions include Proctors, Conduct Council, and Honor Council. Achieving these positions is a clear indicator of the respect students have earned from their teachers and peers. Appointment to the SAS Ambassadors and/or the Curriculum Committee is also significant recognition in the school community.
