

The fabulous Fourth Graders express their thoughts with these colorful Cinquain Poems.

Cat
Fluffy, cute
Purring, stretching, sleeping
Purring on the chair
Sleeping feline
by Charlotte Rice

Owls
Small, fluffy
Flying, eating, fighting
Nocturnal
Birds
by Reagan Lane

Pumpkin pie
Sweet, delicious
Eating, chewing, savoring
Loving and savoring the flavor
Good food
by Rosie Oladokun

Pumpkin
Orange, yellow
Cutting, biting, eating
Baking pumpkin pie Vegetable
by Nalu Chock

Rabbit
Fluffy, active
Running, hopping, scampering
Slipping away from a predator
Bunny
by Christing Chang

Fall
Red, orange
Running, jumping, walking
Making turkey
Pumpkin pie
by Madison Trupiano

Dragon
Black, silver-spotted Hunting, flying, searching
Going back to the rainforest
Dark Wing
by Sydney Soule

Basketball
Orange, black
Bouncing, shooting, tricking
Shooting hoops
NBA
by Wendell Shumate

I phone
Shiny, long
Texting, calling, listening
Charging on a charger Communication
by Zachary Kaufman

V Buck
Blue, light blue
Playing, sitting, sleeping Having Fortnite
by Nolan Ra