Dear Dana families,

I hope this email finds you well. Below are a few reminders and helpful information. I also want to encourage families to reach out to teachers should you have any questions regarding an assignment or grade. Our teachers are always welcome the opportunity to connect with families and clarify things.

- New Monday Schedule: This is a reminder that our new stacked Monday schedule begins tomorrow, September 28. All bell schedules can be found on our Dana website or you can access them here.
- Free and Reduced Lunch Status: Please read this important memo regarding a student's Free and Reduced Lunch status. Families who previously qualified in 2019-2020 but have not reapplied will lose their status starting October 14, 2020. We encourage any family that might qualify to please apply and not miss this deadline.
- PTSA Update: PTSA has exciting details to share about tickets for the drive-in movie night on Thursday 10/22, the Move-A-Thon and more in their weekly blog. Make sure to click the link to get all the information. Your teachers and I can't wait to see you at the Roadium in a few short weeks (from a distance of course!)
- Save the Date: Dana will be partnering with JW Photography and offering drive through school photos on October 20 and October 27 from 2:30 - 6:30 pm. More details regarding alphabetical time slots will be shared in the near future.

I wish everyone a wonderful week.

Take care,
Kiana Clark
