ASD Professional Growth Opportunities

The screenshot shows the Wayne RESA website page for Autism Spectrum Disorder. The page is titled "Autism Spectrum Disorder" and is part of the "SPECIAL EDUCATION" section. It includes a "MARIE Rule" section with two points: 1. ASD is considered a lifelong developmental disability that adversely affects a student's educational performance in 1 or more of the following performance areas: ACADEMIC, BEHAVIORAL, SOCIAL. 2. ASD is typically manifested before 36 months of age. A child who first manifests the characteristics after age 3 may also meet criteria. ASD is characterized by qualitative impairments in reciprocal social interactions, qualitative impairments in communication, and restricted range of interest/repetitive behavior. Below this is a "CONTRIBUTION" section with a link to a chart that outlines the ASD Characteristics. The page also features a "2019-2019 PD CALENDAR" section with a list of events: ASD Academic & Behavior Toolkit (9 AM-1:30 PM) on Thursday, October 25, 2018; Tuesday, March 12, 2019; ASD Toolkit Registration; ASD Behind the Scenes (9 AM-12 PM) on Wednesday, November 14, 2018; Monday, March 18, 2019; ASD Behind the Scenes Registration; ASD Guidelines (9 AM-12 PM) on Thursday, February 14, 2019; and ASD Guidelines Registration. There is also an "ASD COMMITTEE" section with links for Committee Meeting Schedule, ASD TEACHER CONSULTANTS (TC) Document, Tip Sheet, and Consultation Meeting Schedule. At the bottom, there is a "WRACE" section with a link for WRACE Meeting Schedule. A central diagram titled "ASD LIFE FLOWCHART" shows a pyramid with three levels: "The majority of students with ASD attend the school within the bottom 3 tiers", "Intermediate tier and special education interventions that are not based on the 'bottom 3 tiers'", and "Students with ASD who are not in the 'bottom 3 tiers'". A note at the bottom of the pyramid states: "Students who are not in the 'bottom 3 tiers' are not eligible for special education services." A note at the bottom of the page states: "Additional services may be available for students with ASD. Prior to adding services for a student, IEP teams must be collaborative between parents/guardian and team members."
