Personal Reflection

Please answer two of the following questions below. Each reflection should be a minimum of 100 words.
(You may use the back of this form or add additional pages if necessary.)

How have you and your family felt about recent challenges in the world, including COVID-19 and injustices, such as the death of George Floyd? Tell us about your hopes for the future, share your ideas on how we can start to heal our world and communities. How will you bring this mindset to our DPCR community?

You are a leader! What changes would you make to impact the world, and how do you think that change should be brought about? Tell us in detail where you think we could start now and where we can be in the future. How can you use your voice within our DPCR community and beyond?

The DPCR high school journey is a four-year process that leads you to college. What excites you, and what makes you nervous? How will you conquer your fears and find success? What do you want others to know about you and us as DPCR Bruins and Young Professionals?

Tell us about a challenge that you have had to overcome. Who was involved? What was the challenge? What made this challenging? How did you overcome it and would you solve the challenge the same way now as you did then? What would you do differently or not?

What is a hero and who is a hero in your life? Why? Whose hero could you be now or in the future? Why and how does this relate to you as a DPCR student?
