Board of Education Workshop: Portrait of a Graduate/Strategic Plan

Board Chair Mercik Davis and Superintendent Van Tassel opened the meeting by sharing the intent to further the development of the strategic plan for the district. They introduced Dr. Isobel Stevenson from the Connecticut Center for School Change who led the discussion. The framework of the Portrait of the Graduate will allow the Board to examine what attributes are desired in Suffield graduates, and backward engineer a strategic plan to achieve those goals.

Breakout groups were formed to discuss the knowledge, skills and dispositions that graduates should possess at graduation. These groups reported back to the Board and commonalities were identified. Dr. Stevenson recommended the engagement of stakeholders as a resource for the Board. The Board discussed the variety of stakeholders to be engaged and which mechanisms should be used to engage them.

Board members expressed optimism at the opportunity to create a strategic plan for the district.

Finnigan moved, Dudack seconded to adjourn the meeting at 8:08 p.m.
