

AUDITIONS FOR NWR7 THEATER'S PRODUCTION OF

THURSDAY OCTOBER, 15 IN THE THEATER. THE AUDITION TIME SLOT SIGN UP SHEET IS ON THE BACK STAGE DOOR OF THE BIG THEATER

The NWR7 Theatre will be performing a radio play adapted from the 1939 Campbell Playhouses' version of A Christmas Carol that was produced and directed by Orson Wells. The script is available online:

The production is open to middle and high school students.

Those auditioning should be prepared to read from the script. Rehearsals will be Mondays and Thursday evening from 6:30 to 7:30.

The Production will be performed on stage and recorded for broadcast. Cast and crew members will be costumed in late 1930's dress and hairstyles. Multiple vintage stage microphones will be set up along the front of the stage allowing for a socially distanced performance.

For the production we also need choral singers, a piano player, foley sound effects artists and production crew. Contact Mr. Winegar if you are interested

Any student auditioning who has a conflict on October, 15 or who wishes to participate distantly should contact Mr. Winegar at KWinegar@nwr7.org. Students who are full time distance learning are allowed to attend auditions and be present at rehearsals if they wish.
