

Outdoor Education

Our outdoor education program offers more than the traditional “field trip” experience. All the students in fourth through eighth grades participate in travel programs designed to supplement the academic curriculum. Learning often takes place outside the classroom and our outdoor education programs are designed to provide real life application of important skills. Students return from these excursions enthused and excited to share their experience with their peers and families. All bring back memories to last a lifetime.

