About MAP

Measures of Academic Progress (MAP)

It is a fancy way to say showing what students already know and what they are ready to learn this year.

There are three sections of the MAP test

Math (all grades) has around 52 questions

Reading (all grades) has around 42 questions

Language Usage (grades 2-9) has around 50 questions

How long do students have to complete these tests?

There is no time limit, so students can take their time to answer the questions carefully.

It is not possible to get all the questions correct, so if there is something students have not learned yet, we encourage them to try their best.

The MAP test is not a test you can study for, so come ready to show what you are ready to learn this year!
