

This week's highlights

September 28, 2020

New Zoom Talks

On Thursday, October 1, Lorena Fautsch Garza, class of 2000 will share with us an interesting talk, "Equine Therapy and its Benefits". Please CLICK HERE to register.

On Thursday, October 8, Rafael Scarnati, class of 2001, will share an engaging talk with us, "Struggling Readers: A Parent's Guide to Dyslexia and Other Reading Challenges". CLICK HERE to register.

Please notice that from now on our Zoom Talks will be presented at 8:00 pm, Monterrey time.

Next dynamic

The next dynamic Remembering your teachers will be launched on Friday, October 2.

You can find the results of the Top Five Books Read at School dynamic in our Instagram highlights.

Art series

The first episode of our Art series has been released. Isa Castilla, class of 2005, interviewed artist Gabriel Garza, class of 2000. You can find the video of this episode on Instagram and Youtube.

Stay tuned for the interview with our second guest artist Verónica Villarreal, class of 2008.

Eagles Reaching Out

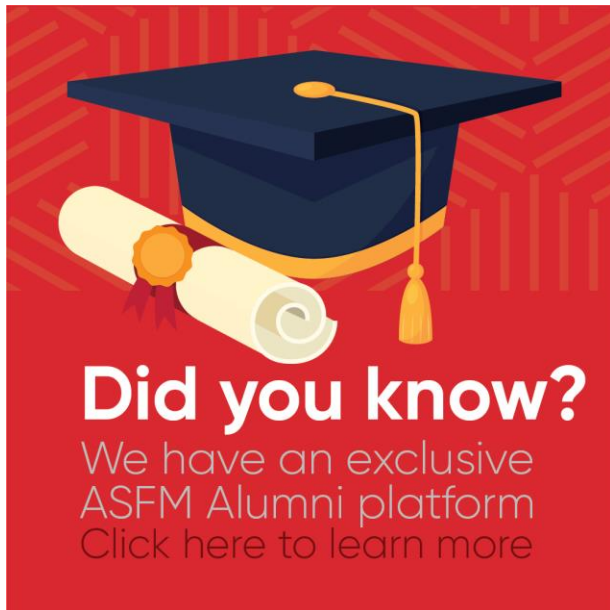

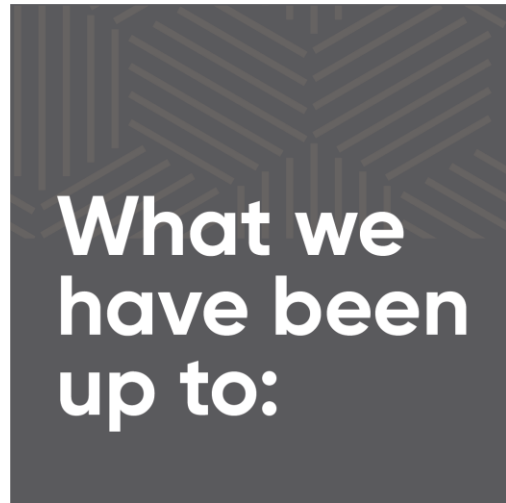

Based on the ASFM vision of open minds, caring hearts, and global leadership, we invite all Eagles to join a new community campaign called EAGLES REACHING OUT to help make a difference for those individuals supported by Cruz Roja Mexicana and/or the Instituto Nuevo Amanecer.

Please CLICK HERE to donate* and help support others in need. Any and all amounts count! #strongertogetherASFM!

Thanks to

Fernando Pérez Maldonado, class of 1987, gave us great advice and very helpful tips in his session “Personal Finance for Youth”.

Paola Santos, class of 1989, talked about her experience of life in a very touching and motivating session, “The Importance of Attitude to Overcome Adversities”.

Join the Alumni Platform

Did you know that you can watch and enjoy all of our past Alumni Zoom Talks? They are uploaded in our ASFM Alumni platform. CLICK HERE to get on the platform. Once you are there select Resources in the left column of the main page and it will get you to all the recordings.

You have to be registered on the ASFM Alumni platform to be able to watch the videos. This platform will also allow you to reconnect with classmates, expand your professional network, find internships or offer jobs among many other things.

For more information on the Alumni initiatives and activities visit the Alumni Section on the ASFM website or Alumni Association Platform or send an email to alumni.association@asfm.edu.mx.
