Let's Meet our Computer Media Specialist

CJ Elias

My name is Catherine Elias or CJ, I have been working with computers since the age of 10. I received my first PC on a Christmas morning and I learned everything I could about it and how it worked. I quickly became the family computer technician at home. I went to school for Graphic Design, and I am a photographer. I love to go on road trips with my husband and two sons and try to photograph everywhere we go. I love technology and I love to help so I am so happy to be working in this department!

Tips For Your Chromebook and Virtual Learning Success

- Always treat your technology equipment with respect.
- Please remember to give your chromebook time to turn on after flipping the lid open.
- Be gentle when plugging in your charger so the ports don't get damaged.
- Always make sure you're plugging your headphones in the correct port.
- Log in everyday!
- Make sure you give your camera and microphone permission so it works properly.
- ALWAYS go through Classlink to access all your apps.
- Communicate with your teachers and check your email DAILY.
- Disconnect any devices (phones, tablets, smart tvs) from the WiFi during school hours so that your internet speeds are faster and hopefully uninterrupted.

Fighting Teen Suicide

A San Bernardino County Sheriff's Dept. Presentation

In the face of one of the most alarming epidemics in American history, law enforcement officials, public health professionals, and educators are all struggling to deal with a rising tide of suicides among our young people. Teen female suicides are at a 40-year high, and the problem only seems to be getting worse. This powerful, creative and innovative presentation is aimed directly at middle school and high school students (or high school-age youth), and makes the case that help is always available, no matter the issue, and that life holds far more riches ahead than young people can foresee. Resources are provided. This presentation, with hard-hitting videos, runs approximately 45 minutes and is open to the public so feel free to invite your friends and family. You may just save someone you care for!

Lucha contra el suicidio de adolescentes

UNA PRESENTACIÓN EN LÍNEA DEL DEPARTAMENTO DEL SHERIFF DEL CONDADO DE SAN BERNARDINO

Frente a una de las epidemias más alarmantes de la historia los Estados Unidos, los funcionarios encargados de hacer cumplir la ley, profesionales de la salud pública y educadores están todos luchando para hacer frente a una creciente ola de suicidios entre nuestros jóvenes. Los suicidios de mujeres adolescentes están en su punto más alto en 40 años, y el problema solo parece estar aumentando peor. Esta presentación poderosa, creativa e innovadora está dirigida directamente a estudiantes de secundaria y preparatoria (o jóvenes en edad de escuela secundaria), y hace el caso de que la ayuda siempre esté disponible, sin importar el problema, y que la vida tiene muchas más riquezas por delante de las que los jóvenes pueden prever. Se proporcionan recursos. Esta presentación, con videos contundentes, dura aproximadamente 45 minutos y está abierta al público, así que siéntase libre de invitar a sus amigos y familiares. ¡Puedes salvar a alguien que te importa!
