OFSTED

The principal and his senior team have successfully created an ambitious and forward looking culture. Staff have raised their expectations of what pupils can achieve, and pupils have broadened their horizons.

Since the school opened in 2016, the principal has worked tirelessly to create an ambitious culture, characterised by raised expectations, improved standards and strong pastoral care. His compelling vision of a school at the heart of the community is shared and promoted vigorously by staff, pupils, parents and carers.

So many things to be proud of

- Pupils seize the many opportunities the school provides for them to develop their interests and aptitudes. For example, pupils can choose to learn musical instruments or take part in the various singing and instrumental clubs.
- Pupils enjoy coming to school
