All is Bright Holiday Gift Assistance

We are happy to share that Faith Promise Church (Blount campus) has partnered with our school once again to assist any family in need with gifts this Christmas and holiday season. If your family would like to participate in the "All is Bright" program, please print out and complete the forms below and return to school no later than October 23, 2020.

The date for the All is Bright shopping event will be December 5th. You must attend the All is Bright Shopping Event to receive assistance. Gifts will not be delivered to individuals or be available to pick up after the event. Shopping event details will be provided to those who sign up for this program. Click on the red bar below to print the forms.
