Aim High, Work Hard, Care Deeply

16th October 2020

A message from Mrs Tomlinson...

Many of you are very keen to know how to further support your children with their learning and want to have as much information as possible about each subject area and its progression through the different key stages. A number of you have also been asking about subject gaps that have perhaps arisen as a result of lockdown and how you can help your child to bridge these gaps effectively. Last academic year, staff did a great deal of work on the development of curriculum progression documents and these are all available on our school website. They detail the journey children at Lynch Hill would be expected to take from Early Years through to Year 6 in each subject area. To access these, go to the 'Curriculum' section of the school website, click on 'Subject Overviews' and the subject you want, you will then be able to download the 'I Can' statements. I hope you will find these useful.

Staff are also mindful that the children missed out on a great deal of learning time during the summer term and are therefore keen to provide some home learning tasks for the two week break. This will allow the pupils to consolidate and secure what has been taught over the last six weeks. These tasks should be manageable and still leave plenty of opportunity to enjoy quality family time together, so we hope you will encourage your children to complete them.

I am sure, like me, you have been following the news and awaiting updates on the next steps that the government intend to take in order to attempt to curb the rising Covid cases. There has been much speculation about tighter restrictions and a short-term circuit break in the way that Northern Ireland are implementing. Whatever is decided next for England, we all have to recognise that the number of infections is rising and we are in for a bumpy ride in the weeks and months ahead. At Lynch Hill, I can only say that we have been incredibly fortunate that we have not yet had to respond to confirmed cases in staff or pupils within our school, when I know so many other schools in the area have been affected. However, we have sadly become aware of parents not following the guidance regarding testing. If you get a Covid test, it is imperative that you and your household self-isolate whilst you await the results. To refuse to adhere to this is highly irresponsible and potentially putting the lives of others at risk.

Going forward, I ask that you follow all updated government guidance, any changed school guidance and, when we return after half term, everyone adheres to the Hands, Face, Space message. We must be regularly washing/sanitising our hands, we must wear a visor or mask on school grounds (unless medically exempt) and we must keep an appropriate and safe distance from others.

Thank you as always for your support. I look forward to welcoming you all back on Tuesday 3rd November. Be safe and enjoy the half-term break with your loved ones.

Lindsey Tomlinson

And... relax!

Half term is coming up and we want everyone to relax! 2020 has been a year of changes, uncertainties and restrictions and it has impacted us all. This half term take time to pause and play with your children. Make slime, go for walks, play board games, get out the Lego, get the art and craft things out and read together. It can be difficult to make time for these things, especially when juggling work schedules and siblings, but it has never been more important to give our children some positive, focused attention. We know that secure attachments also leads to readiness to learn, independence skills and overall happiness. Invest in your children this half term!

Anti-Bullying Poster Competition

As part of Anti-Bullying Week in November, we would like to run a poster competition for the children. The poster should make reference to the school (could be name or logo) and have a catchy but informative slogan.

The theme for Anti-Bullying Week 2020 is: United Against Bullying. Anti-Bullying Week will happen from Monday 16th - Friday 20th November. Get those creative thinking hats on over the holiday and bring your poster to school by Tuesday 10th November. You can find ideas for your poster on the following websites:

Covid19

Along with this newsletter, we are sending an easy to read brochure on what to do if you or someone you share your home with has coronavirus symptoms. It is called Easy Read Household Isolation. Please take the time to read this as it contains very important information. If you, or someone in your household develops coronavirus symptoms, the whole household should isolate. Timeframes for isolating are contained in the document.

- Get a test.
- Do NOT send your children to school.
- Do NOT leave your house (even with a mask) and spread the virus.

No matter how inconvenient this is, you must stay at home to protect the lives of your neighbours, friends, children and school staff. Thank you.

We are a Nut and Seed Free School

A reminder to parents that no nut or seed products of any kind should be brought in to school. This includes seeded bread. Even if your child has no allergies, we have a number of children and staff with life threatening allergies to the point where even the odour of nuts can induce a reaction. Thank you for your co-operation.

We Are Now Cashless – are you signed up to SchoolMoney?

If you need help logging on, our friendly and approachable office staff will be pleased to help you. The ONLY cash we will be taking in the near future is:

- Non-uniform donations
- cake sales
- fairs

Everything else should be paid for on SchoolMoney.

Please also be aware that we can only accept childcare vouchers for Funzone, breakfast club and Extended nursery and after school clubs.

THANK YOU

For all your items. We have raised £346.50 for the school. Well done to 1W & 2M for bringing in 19 bags each. You will be rewarded with a non-school uniform day next term.

Milk Bottle Tops

Our local church is asking for your help to collect plastic milk bottle tops. It would be greatly appreciated if you could save these for us and put them in our box at the school's front reception area. Many thanks.
