

Geography

Course description

The aims of this course are to develop a wider understanding of the world around us by studying a broad spectrum of different topics.

Students must have an interest in current media events and be able to relate their own experiences into their understanding. An emphasis on independent learning will encourage an analytical and enquiring approach to their studies.

Course content: A Level Geography Edexcel

Year 1:

Globalisation

Regenerating places

Tectonics

Coasts

Year 2:

Superpowers

Migration, sovereignty and identity

Water cycle and Carbon cycle

Assessment

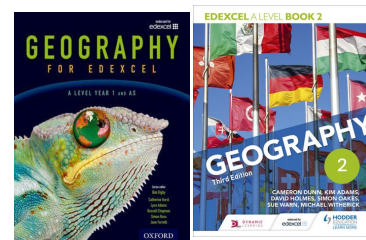

Paper 1—Physical geography : 2 hour 30 minute examination (30% of the qualification)

Paper 2—Human Geography will take 2 hour 30 minute examination (30% of the qualification)

Paper 3: 2 hour 30 minute examination (20% of the qualification)

Coursework: Independent examination (20% of the qualification)

Recommended textbook / revision guide

Future pathways

Many different cross-curricular skills are developed in Geography but are useful for the students in their other subjects too. The following key skills are cultivated in Geography:

☑ Communication Organisation Essay-writing Team work Statistical skills

Problem Solving Information and Communication Technology Research and analysis of sources of information