O Gray Forem
Cato Crusade

Here, gentlemen, is the Hogertown Almanack
for Friday November 9, 1973.
It is filled with descriptions of animals, birds etc. It apologizes for a mistake where the chapter on Grey hounds is between those on poodles and sheep.
Naturally it has a special chapter on the Grey Hound. Incidentally in trying to confuse
The Grey Hounds Mc-Monogh has changed its name from Codets and Farmers to Eagles.

The Grey Hound is a wonderful combination of part tiger from which comes his speed and ferocity, part lion from which comes his great courage and fighting heart, part fox from which he gets his brains and deception.

The Grey Hound is a rather handsome creature with hair at least sufficiently short to avoid any Eagle's claws and beak.

The philosophies of one age have become the absurdities of the next, and the foolishness of yesterday has become the wisdom of to-morrow.

—SIR WILLIAM OSLER. 1849-1919

If anything he has become better looking the <sup>last 2</sup> years because he wears his collar. He may yelp and yelp at the sight of food and is very popular with girls. This Greyhound has it all, intelligence, speed, heart, determination to win and unselfish loyalty to other Greyhounds, to his head trainer <sup>Trainers</sup> Mr. S. + Mr. T. Soter and his other trainers <sup>by the way</sup> is especially equipped to battle against Eagles as he used to train Blue Jays at Johns Hopkins.

The Greyhound of 1973<sup>5</sup> is one of the very best-tried in battle, wounded but recovered, hurt but never conquered. <sup>Loxley - Heng</sup> <sup>Carroll - Coker, Duck</sup> MacKenzie Eagles, please listen. Don't approach this flaming, <sup>yet</sup> ice cold, <sup>well-handled</sup> confident Greyhound. The bump beneath his eyes is simply a hard nose. Yes, The Eagle is a noble bird that is fast becoming extinct in this country. Don't let yourselves be destroyed any further.

God give us men. A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands.

—J. G. HOLLAND. 1819-1881

 If you battle The Grey bound on May day grounds grounds today—fur
 and feathers will fly but more feathers will be lost than fur. You will be truly called The Bold Eagle. The Grey bound will fight you to the death—your death. To paraphrase
 a little poem:
 Well enough, Well enough beware of the day
 When The Grey bound shall meet thee in battle array For a team of Orange falls beaten in flight
 And all poor Eagles will scatter in flight
