

YOUTH SUICIDE

AWARENESS & PREVENTION

#SUICIDEPREVENTIONMONTH

FACTS ABOUT YOUTH SUICIDE

2nd

Currently, suicide is the second leading cause of death nationally for 15-19 year olds.

17

In WA State, on average, 17 teens are admitted to the hospital for self-inflicted injuries each week..

91

In 2018, 91 youth under the age of 19 died by suicide in WA State.

1 in 10

1 in 10 eighth grade students in Washington State reported having attempted suicide in 2018.

WARNING SIGNS

Talking about wanting to die.

Sleeping too much/too little

Talking about feeling worthless & hopeless

Behaving recklessly

Talking about feeling trapped or in pain

Isolating themselves

Talking about being a burden

Increased use of alcohol/drugs

Showing rage

Looking online for ways to kill themselves

Extreme mood swings

HOW TO START A CONVERSATION

Talk to them in private

Listen to their story

Tell them you care about them

Ask directly if they are thinking about suicide

Encourage them to seek treatment

Avoid minimizing problems/giving advice

ASK THEM

"Sometimes people think that life is not worth living. Have you felt this way?"

IF YES

LIFE IN IMMEDIATE DANGER? CALL 911

- ➔ Take them seriously
- ➔ Stay with them
- ➔ Remove any lethal means
- ➔ Contact helpful resources (below)
- ➔ Escort them to mental health services or the emergency room

RESOURCES

FOR TEENS

Teen Link Help Line
CALL 866-833-6546

Teen Link Chat
VISIT 866teenlink.org

Crisis Text Line
TEXT HOME to 741741

FOR PARENTS

King County Crisis Clinic
CALL 866-427-4747

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline
CALL 800-273-TALK

American Foundation for Suicide Prevention
VISIT afsp.org

REACH OUT FOR HELP

Whether you're a teen, a caring friend, a parent or a concerned adult in King County, WA, you can reach out to Youth Eastside Services for help - or simply to ask questions about what youth mental health and substance use services might be best for you or a person you know.

YOUTH EASTSIDE SERVICES
BELLEVUE | KIRKLAND | REDMOND

youtheastsideservices.org

425-747-4697