

Why study Agricultural Education?

- ◆ There are 8,000 job titles in agriculture
- ◆ An increasing population means a growing demand for qualified people in the agricultural industry
- ◆ It is America's largest industry
- ◆ 10% of jobs in agriculture go unfilled because there are more jobs than people who understand agriculture
- ◆ Any career of interest can be applied to agriculture

AGRICULTURE
CAREERS OFFER
MORE THAN YOU THINK!

Visit:

www.agexplorer.com

www.agcareers.com

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for

Premier Leadership, Personal Growth & Career Success
through Agricultural Education

Department Personnel

Mia Haaland, Department Chairperson &
Instructor (mhaaland@nwr7.org)
Erick Wildes, Instructor (ewildes@nwr7.org)
John Farrell, Instructor (jfarrell@nwr7.org)
Rebekah Woodworth, Instructor
(rwoodworth@nwr7.org)
Barbara Collins, Office Administrator
(bcollins@nwr7.org)

Northwestern Regional 7 Schools

Agricultural Education

*Learning to Do
Doing to Learn
Earning to Live
Living to Serve*

CLASS/LABS

Primary Curriculum Areas:

Animal Science

Plant Science

Mechanics

Natural Resources

Leadership

HANDS ON EXPERIENCES IN:
PUBLIC SPEAKING
MONEY MANAGEMENT
REGIONAL/STATE/
NATIONAL COMPETITIONS

FFA

Benefits of Membership: Leadership
Skill Development
Competitions
Awards/Scholarships
Travel Opportunities
Teamwork
Meeting Friends/Family
Public Speaking

www.ffa.org

SAEP

Work Experience Gained
Outside of the Classroom through....

- ♦ Career Exploration
 - ♦ Job Shadowing
- ♦ Paid/Unpaid Jobs in the Community
- ♦ Starting Your Own Small Business
 - ♦ Research Projects
 - ♦ Community Service
 - ♦ Volunteering
- ♦ Work in School Lab

