

Welcome back to CCRC

We are still accepting students at The College and Career Readiness Center. Virtual or Face to Face students are welcome to attend our school. Please meet with your High School counselor or call us directly at 337-909-2961 if you are interested in taking any one of our courses. We take pride in our students and want to see them all successful in whatever pathway they choose.

