

SACRED HEART

SACRED HEART FAMILY ART PROJECT TO CELEBRATE WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Co-Hosted By the Parents of Students of Color Group and the Alumnae Angels at Convent of the Sacred Heart

Current and alumnae families are invited to come together and create art inspired by Expressionist artist Alma Thomas. Guided by museum educators from The Studio Museum in Harlem, including 91st Street Alumna Erin Hylton '06, participants will have the choice of making tissue paper collages using bright colors and glue or work with acrylic paint. Pizza and treats following the art activity.
