WELCOME

Welcome to Night in the Woods presented by the TWCA Theatre Department. On behalf of the Fine Arts faculty, I would like to welcome you to today's performance. It has been a challenging few months for our world, country, state and school. We are blessed to be at a school that is so dedicated to our families and has such a commitment to a Christ-centered education. We are thankful that we are here together today and can celebrate the hard work of our students. Rest assured that TWCA is working hard to provide quality experiences amid the uncertainty.

This is just the beginning of our Fine Arts events for the school year. We invite you back for our Christmas concerts, spring musicals, piano show, spring band and choir concert and our Night at the Gallery art show.

TWCA Fine Arts is dedicated to teaching our students to be creative for the glory of God.

Sit back, relax and enjoy the show.

— PHIL SWEGER

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I am so thankful to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for this awesome opportunity to direct this show. For the past month, students have been working on their small, short scenes in class with the exception of one group that rehearses in the morning. Students have chosen to either act in the play, design costumes, or work backstage. With the addition of our awesome Interact members, we have seventy amazing students working on this production of short scenes.

I am so grateful for my amazing Fine Arts colleagues, Administration, supportive parents, and amazingly talented students for making this performance possible. In these current crazy times, we hope that this show will bring laughter and a smile to your face. Thank you for coming and we hope to see you again for our spring productions.

— PALVIN WILLIAMS

CAMP YEAH!

Camp YEAH! brings a little summer fun to November. These young campers love to go on hikes, fish, tell camp stories, and of course, keep their brave counselor on her toes! This fun, short play will give you an inside look at a very interesting summer camp.

REHEARSAL

It's the night before the show and the cast and crew of the play, And Then There Was One: Spoof by Michael Druce are having difficulty getting Scene 2 finished. To add to their troubles, Director Kendall, who was left in charge by Mr. Williams, must make sure her cast is ready for this show because Mr. Druce himself will be in attendance.
