

Kelly Gemellaro

(Head of Performing Arts and Dance Director)

Kelly was born and raised in Staten Island, New York. She has a BFA in Dance/Education from Marymount Manhattan College. An advocate for the arts, former professional dancer, dance teacher, choreographer and fitness enthusiast.

Some professional credits include: Tokyo Disneyland, Royal Caribbean Cruises, Radio City Christmas Spectacular and Bucks County Playhouse Summer Stock. Married with three children, Kelly has been teaching and choreographing dance at Red Bank Catholic H.S. since 2005. She has also choreographed numerous musicals for RBC and in 2017 won a Count Basie Award for best choreography for “Cinderella.”