

Saint Mary's Resource Program

Debbie Ballard, Learning Specialist and Counselor
Rebecca Philbrick, Director of the Saint Mary's Resource Program

The Academy of the
HOLY CROSS

Saint Mary's Resource Program

Goals of the Program - To help each girl:

- Discover and understand her unique learning strengths and challenges.
- Identify and develop strategies that support her academic success.
- Implement accommodations based on her Formal Accommodation Plan
- Become an advocate for her individual learning needs.

Program Support

- Organizational Support
- Assistance with study skills
- Strategies for self-advocacy
- Facilitation of study groups
- Observation in classroom
- Goal setting
- Accommodation Management

Accommodations Offered

- Computer to type
- Preferred Seating
- Assistance with note taking
- Extended time on assessments
- Exam/Test Reader
- Calculator
- Early submission of work
- No penalty for spelling
- Oral Follow Up
- Text to Speech Software
- Mark in Test
- Word or Formula Bank
- Breaks

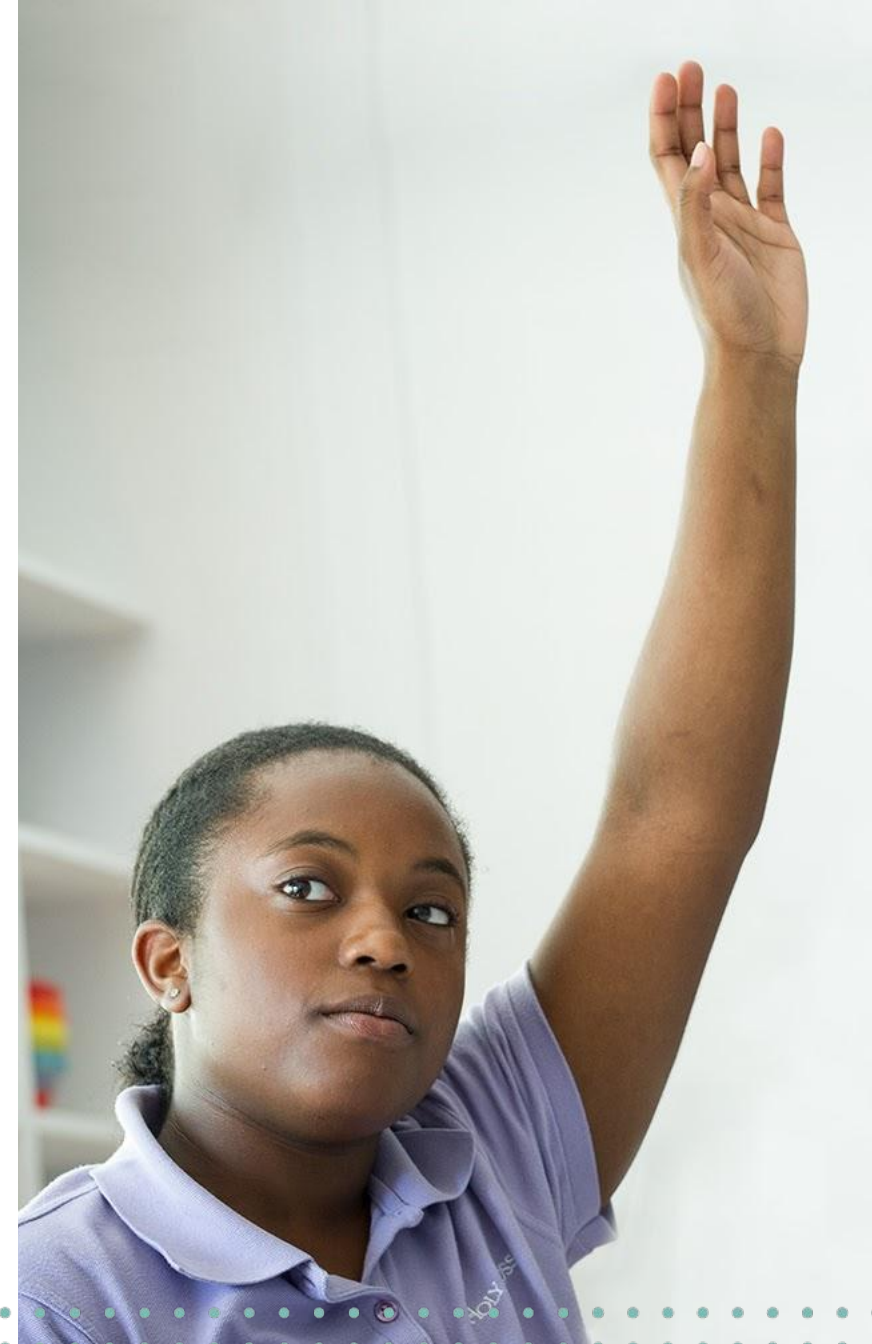

Resources Available

Resources Provided to All Students

- School Counselors
- Math Lab
- Clubs
- Peer Tutoring
- Science Help Center
- World Language Lab
- College Counselor
- Advisory
- Teacher Support

Resources Provided to Students in SMRP

- SMRP Study Hall
- Weekly Check Ins
- Learning Ally
- Formal Accommodation Plans
- Academic Accommodations
- Study Group Facilitation
- Coordination with Counselor
- Coordination with teachers
- ACT and SAT Special Testing
- Learning Specialist
- Planner Support
- Executive Functioning Training
- Group Instruction

SMRP Year by Year

Freshmen/Sophomores

- Weekly Support
- Small Group Facilitation
- Individual Support as Needed
- SMRP Study Hall

Juniors

- SMRP Study Hall as Needed
- Individual Support as Needed

Seniors

- SMRP Study Hall as Needed
- Individual Support as Needed

The Academy's Saint Mary's Resource Program (SMRP) is designed for college-bound students diagnosed with mild learning differences. The goal of the SMRP is to help these young women embrace their individual learning styles while pursuing academic excellence.

Saint Mary's Resource Program Team

Ms. Deborah Ballard

Learning Specialist and Counselor

Ms. Rebecca Philbrick

Director of the Saint Mary's Resource Program

EMPOWERED
girls

