

Virtual From Closet to Concept Camp for Students...

Based on the overwhelming success of our Virtual Summer Camps for 2020, Banson NYC is excited to offer a Virtual Fashion Styling Camp for high school and college students. The week-long session will be dynamic, interactive and fun. Students will learn about styling through their closets. The week will include uncovering their personal style, learning about different fashion styles, how attitude and feeling dictate style and much more. Upon completion, students will understand that style affects their success in every aspect of life. They will gain greater self-awareness, a new point of view and knowledge that will prepare them for college interviews, networking, social occasions and much more. Tuition includes the following:

- 10 hours of live instruction by two industry professionals, now university professors + offline hours
- Access to professional fashion resources
- Professional guidance
- Work on your own Personal Brand

July 19, 2021 – July 23, 2021

The cost is $375.00 per student but use code STAYWELL to receive 20% off due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
