The Parent-to-Parent Program

The Parent-to-Parent Program serves parents/guardians who are raising a child up to age 21 who has been diagnosed with a serious emotional disturbance or is experiencing social, emotional, developmental and/or behavioral challenges. As Family Peer Advocates, we provide support, encouragement, engagement, resources and hope to families. Staff are trained and credentialed to work with families based on our personal experience parenting a child with similar needs.

The Parent to Parent Program offers:

- Support groups
- Knowledge of the various systems relating to families
- Information on Local, State and Federal levels
- Parenting skills and techniques
- Ways to better communicate and collaborate
- Ideas, concerns, solutions

GOOD THINGS HAPPEN WHEN FAMILIES WORK TOGETHER 😊

The positive influence of parents and caregivers is the most important factor to lead our children to mental health and wellness!
