Message from Jorge

Dear Operations Team,

In this October/November I will recognize and observe several areas that I believe are relevant to the Ops' Team Members.

Please know that your efforts are recognized, and I truly appreciate everything you have been doing to support the return of our youngest learners to in person instruction. The Boar of Education has approved the return to in person learning for 4 through 12 grades on January 4, 2021. Our work will continue to ensure that all safety practices are in place to keep our students and team members safe when we are back from the Holiday break. Your work and leadership is essential to successfully bringing back our older students, and I am grateful for your efforts to make this possible.

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. I honor all those who lost their lives to breast cancer, recognize the courageous survivors who are still fighting it, and their loved ones who give their unwavering support during the most trying times. Both men and women can have breast cancer, however, women are at higher risk. I encourage everyone to take care of your self and follow the recommendation from health care experts by doing screenings, speaking with your health care providers, and by visiting www.Cancer.gov/Breast. Early detection and treatment can save lives.

November is Native American Heritage Month, or as it is commonly referred to, American Indian and Alaska Native Heritage Month. The month is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of "First Indigenous People in the Americas." Native American Heritage Month is also an opportune time to educate the general public about tribes, to raise a general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present. This month we celebrate the many team members of Native American Heritage and we are grateful for what they contribute to our community everyday.

This Thanksgiving, I will be particularly grateful for every single one of you in our Operations team, and I feel blessed by having the opportunity to work alongside you. During this time, we also pause and acknowledge those who will have empty seats at their table due to the loss of loved ones during this year. I wish every team member the very best as we embark on the holiday season.

With regards to COVID19, we continue to support efforts protect team members. Please stay safe and keep others safe by continuing to practice the 3 W's, wear your face covering, watch your distance and wash your hands.

Sincerely,
Jorge Rebles
