Led by SEM's theatre teacher and director Susan Drozd and her sister Kari Drozd, a professional costume designer, nine SEM girls helped to make about 120 cloth masks for our faculty and staff on July 18. This fall they posed for a group picture on the SEM steps.

Instead of the SEM logo being stamped on something ordered and mass-produced, these masks say much about SEM without literally saying SEM. Unique, girl-powered, community-minded, forward-thinking. So VERY SEM.

Letter from Head of School

Only three years ago I wrote that no two years are the same in the life of a school and that was what I enjoyed most about my work. Never in my wildest imagination did I foresee a year like the last! Yet, it is no surprise to me that our school and the people connected with SEM have risen to meet the challenges presented. What has enriched my work is a great sense of pride and gratitude for the community that is SEM: the students, their families, the faculty and staff, the alumnae, the many friends, foundations, and organizations that help to sustain us. THE PANDEMIC HAS STRENGTHENED OUR BOND AND OUR PURPOSE.

When I reflect upon the moment on March 13 when we made the decision to move to remote learning, there were student tears and confusion, and a determination that we would face what lay ahead together. Not only have we stuck together, but remarkably the 2020-21 year started as each of our previous 169 years – with girls on campus. Yes, our spaces and schedule are reconfigured, our technology rethought and rebought for simultaneous remote and classroom teaching, and emergency aid was necessary. Today, there are SEM girls joining remotely from Western New York and around the world – Bahamas, China, Kenya, South Korea, and Vietnam.

From the day we left school in March to the day we returned this fall, the true mettle of SEM showed itself. In the uncertainty of last spring, we relied on our core values of courage, confidence, and independence to lead the way. Because of the professionalism, flexibility, and genius of our faculty, we pivoted successfully to synchronous remote learning.

There have been sacrifices. The basketball team had a championship season, but the trip to NYC for the state championship was cancelled. We believed the Class of 2020 deserved to be feted and allowed to move into their futures, though they did not get their day at Westminster Church. To honor them on their graduation day we invented a Covid-safe individualized ceremony. Our reunion classes made-do with spirited Zoom gatherings.

This June, the graduates of the Class of 2020 are invited to join the women of last year's (O's & 5's) and this year's reunion classes (1's & 6's) as they gather together for a history-making reunion event.

AS WE COLLECTIVELY WITNESS HISTORY AND FIND OUR PLACES IN IT, WE ARE FORWARD-THINKING ABOUT THE VALUE OF OUR EDUCATION, AND WHY IT'S IMPORTANT THAT WE ARE HERE TO OFFER IT.

When the nation began its long-overdue reckoning with racism last spring, we created an Anti-Racist Task Force to ensure we do better now and in the future. And when we saw families in our community struggling as a result of the economic impact of Covid, the board of trustees examined our tuition. They recognized it was preventing access for qualified girls to what we know is an unparalleled education for girls, anywhere.

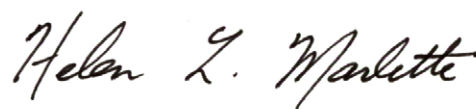

SEM was able to make these moves and plan for the fall and the future beyond Covid because of the commitment of generations of SEM graduates and families who believe in and support the work we are doing. Our spirits were boosted when our families and alumnae gave us our most successful SEMday ever!

There is still enjoyment in my work; now, no longer for its unpredictability, but because of its predictability. I know we can rely on the SEM community of learners, families, faculty, and alumnae to rise to meet the needs created by this time.

Our bonds may currently be forged over Zoom, but the determination to remain connected is stronger than ever.

Thank you for your generosity of spirit and resources.

Stay well and stay together,

THE POWER OF ALL-GIRLS

Girls' schools students are involved, called on, and encouraged to participate.

Girls' schools students report higher levels of self-esteem and academic engagement.

Over 88% of girls' school students report that they feel comfortable being themselves at school.

Nearly 80% of girls' school students report that they are challenged to achieve their full academic potential compared to 72% of girls at coed independent and 44% at coed public schools.

Girls' school graduates display higher levels of cultural competency.

Girls' school graduates express stronger community involvement.

Girls' school graduates exhibit increased political engagement.

She's engaged, she's herself - she feels her power at an all-girls school.

Research provided by the National Coalition of Girls' Schools.*

THE SEM DISTINCTION

Our cozy campus, which is on the National Register of Historic Places, is in the lively and beautiful center of the city of Buffalo, NY. This is the setting for great possibilities!

Many schools were founded in a specific faith; SEM was founded over a century-and-a-half ago to be mission-driven and independent.

At our core is our Academic and Social Honor Code. Academic honor requires respecting the intellectual and artistic property of others. Social honor means treating ourselves and the other members of our community with respect, communicating honestly with one another, valuing our differences, and positively representing our school.

The power of SEM is the expectation that our students will be intellectually curious, meet challenges with preparation and optimism, and question and revisit the answers until they are satisfied. All of this is accomplished with the support of an extraordinarily accomplished faculty committed to the education of girls.

Giving Explained

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SEM'S ANNUAL FUND AND OTHER GIVING?

SEM's annual fund is vital to SEM's operating budget, as tuition alone does not cover our school's expenses – typical for independent schools everywhere. 8-10% of our expenses are covered each year by annual fund gifts, and that support is essential to fund SEM's teaching and learning opportunities, our financial aid, and our campus.

SEM's annual fund starts on July 1 and ends on June 30 every year and includes support from alumnae, parents, faculty, trustees, parents of alumnae, former faculty, and friends of SEM. Both faculty and trustee support of the Annual Fund has been 100% most years. There are a number of levels of giving as indicated in this report.

WHAT ROLE DOES SEM'S ENDOWMENT PLAY?

SEM's endowment is a permanent investment that provides annual support to SEM. It consists of over 50 named funds supporting donor individual interests in scholarship, SEM's faculty, SEM's programs, or the school's greatest needs (also referred to as "unrestricted" endowment). These funds are invested in perpetuity to benefit SEM by generating earned income to contribute to our operating budget. SEM's total endowment as of June 30, 2020, stands at $9,197,906.

Growing SEM's endowment builds a stronger and more stable financial base for future generations.

WHAT IS PLANNED GIVING?

At SEM, being a planned giving donor makes you a member of the Elm Legacy Society. Planning ahead for a future gift allows individuals and families - through bequests, trusts, retirement funds, life insurance, real estate, and other estate planning instruments - to provide for SEM's future and to achieve charitable goals including lowering capital gains and other taxes.

Joining the Elm Legacy Society is one of the best ways to provide a lasting legacy that will benefit future generations of SEM students, SEM faculty, and the quality of the school's programs and learning environments.

And of course, planned giving lets you establish your legacy, whether you decide to recognize your class, parents, spouse, family, or yourself in making a bequest to SEM.

SEM Alumnae Making an Impact

By Molly O. Greene '98 Director of Institutional Advancement

was the quintessential SEM student. She served as Hornet captain, was a member of the baseball, basketball, and field hockey teams, and in her senior yearbook was voted, "first to 'join up'." Indeed, Sally "joined-up" for many causes throughout her life, including the Buffalo Zoo and the United Way.

An avid rower later in her life, Sally was a founding member of West Side Rowing Club's Master Woman Rowing Program and won a gold medal in the mixed doubles race at the 1994 U.S. Masters Nationals in Augusta, GA.

To celebrate Sally's life and carry on her legacy at SEM, the Munschauer family established a fully endowed scholarship in her memory for an exceptional student who wouldn't otherwise be able to attend SEM.

The first Munschauer scholar started school in September 2020 as a proud member of the Class of 2024. Thank you to the Munschauer family for this extraordinary gift. Sally's scholarship impacts all in our school community; for the scholar, it is a life-changing opportunity, and the SEM community benefits from all the Munschauer scholars offer our school.

Thank you, Sally, for your impact!

Alexis Peterson '02 has been tutoring since she was 11 years old; she's always just really liked tests. She scored a perfect 1600 on the SAT when she was a junior at SEM. That, and her remarkable achievements as a scholar and an athlete led her first to Stanford University, and then to Harvard University where she earned a master's in Urban Planning. Though she worked in various fields, tutoring was always something she was doing on the side. In 2018, Alexis left her corporate job to start Alexis Prep, a tutoring and test prep company based in Houston, TX, which now has clients all over the world.

When Alexis made the bold move to start her own company, the first place she thought of was SEM. Because SEM is small and supportive, while she was a student Alexis took risks and tried clubs and sports that she never would have elsewhere. It was trying the crew team that ultimately earned her a D-1 scholarship for college. Alexis specifically remembers Mrs. Magavern and Mrs. McOwen's SAT prep class in her junior year. "When I would insist that an answer she marked wrong was in fact correct, Mrs. Magavern helped me to understand how the test wanted me to think about the question, not how we would think about it in English class." That is the philosophy Alexis utilizes at Alexis Prep; she gives that same lesson that Mrs. Magavern gave her to her clients.

First of all, I had the courage and confidence to start my own business because of my SEM education.

And this past spring, Alexis brought those lessons full circle, back to SEM. On March 11, 2020, Alexis held a free SAT/ACT prep session for all juniors (just two days before we were forced to go to remote learning because of the pandemic). It was extremely important for Alexis to give back and make an impact at SEM. Throughout the spring, Alexis posted resources for our students and offered her services to any SEM student who reached out. This fall, Alexis volunteered her time for six Zoom sessions with SEM seniors to help them prepare for the fall SAT and ACT. Grace '21 says, "Alexis' prep series taught me strategies that immensely boosted my score. She's also very fun and kind; it didn't even feel like work!"

Thank you, Alexis, for your impact!

Dahlia Fetouh '92

describes her years at SEM as among the most valuable and formative years of her life. "I was quiet in grammar school," she said. "SEM gave me the support I needed to push myself out of my comfort zone and do things like run for a class office, which I never would have even considered before." Whether she was casting famous movie stars for fictional productions of Homer's The Iliad and The Odyssey in Ms. Oreskovic's English class, or reading Sartre and Camus in Madame Kurtz's French class, Dahlia said she was challenged academically, developed life-long friendships, and emerged a well-rounded scholar and person.

In 2016, Dahlia left corporate law and took a job in the Office of the General Counsel at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Just as SEM was, Dahlia believes MIT is a perfect fit. "MIT is an institution committed to making the world a better place, and I love that every day is different. I work on everything from immigration issues to the school's Covid-19 response plan." The mission-driven work Dahlia does allows her to positively impact many areas of life at MIT.

From Princeton undergrad to NYU law school to clerking for a federal appeals court judge, Dahlia says that she relied on the tools she learned at SEM to navigate her challenging academic and career path.

Most recently, Dahlia was part of a team that led the effort to ensure that international students nationwide could continue to study in the US during the Covid-19 pandemic. She works on teams that encourage collaboration, foster connections across departments, and engage in complex problem solving. Dahlia excels on these teams because of her experiences at SEM. Dahlia continues to give back to SEM through her work with the Head's Council on Alumnae Engagement.

Thank you, Dahlia, for your impact!

SEM & STEINWAY

By Erin St. John Kelly Director of Communications

SEM's commitment to becoming a rare Steinway Select School, which began in 2019, has not wavered, despite our spring spent coping with the effects of Covid. Becoming one of a company of only 16 K-12 schools in the world will be a major differentiator when girls and their families are choosing a high school. Steinway & Sons is not only synonymous with quality pianos and music, it is synonymous with quality itself. What is also wonderful is that they are proud to count SEM as a partner, we're on their website!

We are grateful to the reunion classes of 2019 for their gift of our first new Steinway piano which qualified us for the program. It has pride of place in the Gallery from where students can fill the school with music at lunchtime, after school, and on weekends.

The minimum number of new pianos we need in order to qualify for Select School status is three. Our ultimate goal is to have five new Steinway & Sons manufactured pianos at SEM. In the heart of our school, the Chapel, the grand piano is from 1917 and its soundboard, its heart, is cracked. In fact, every one of our 10 pianos at SEM has a cracked soundboard. We aim for two upright "practice" pianos - the one in the Atrium (cafeteria) where the current piano is used often by the girls, and we'd like to put an upright in the Performing Arts Center where a larger piano now stands (that larger model piano makes staging shows in-the-round difficult, the actors' entrances and exits must go around it). Finally, the piano in the music room is from 1910. It's as old as our building and sadly, it is badly damaged.

To find out more about ways to support our SEM-Steinway initiative contact Director of Institutional Advancement Molly O. Greene '98: mgreene@buffaloseminary.org.

An Arts Faculty of Practicing Professionals

Our theatre teacher is active in the professional theatre community as a director and crew member. Our fine arts teacher is a cartoonist and artist who is regularly published in The New Yorker and exhibits in galleries. Our music teacher is a Grammy Award-nominated composer and musician who performs worldwide. Our digital art teacher is a professional photographer and graphic designer.

SEM students are taught and encouraged to stretch beyond themselves – they are prepared for the demands of the world they will encounter as women of business, art, science, academics, or service.

2019-20 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Highlights

By Kanika Durland Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

It is our core purpose, our most fundamental promise, to provide SEM students with a uniquely rigorous and holistic education. To that end, SEM requires its skilled and experienced educators to have the humility and drive to continually hone their craft. This process is the proverbial rising tide that lifts all boats, including Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI). Certain tenets of sound education – that students who feel they belong achieve more, for example – further SEM’s core mission and its commitment to DEI work, and illustrate the way these goals are one and the same.

Students’ sense of belonging comes in part from seeing familiar faces in leadership positions. Some history: the first Black student at SEM was Joanne Seay, Class of 1967. Her yearbook entry notes, “she is constantly empathizing with us, sorting relevance from irrelevance with calm maturity.” She empathized with the majority. Not the other way around. The first Black Student Council president was Sharon Bailey, Class of 1985. This year, SEM elected its first Black School Government Association (SGA) president since Naima Pearce, Class of 2005.

The dazzling Journey Hairston is a superlative member of the SEM community – authentic, composed, humorous – but from the teaching and DEI perspective, her election is an important lesson. Having never seen any Black student leaders, Journey did not initially consider running for SGA president. She needed encouragement, someone who understood her qualities to fix her sights on a new target. It’s a little painful, now, to imagine what we would have missed out on if Journey had not had the right push at the right time, or had not been ready to take up the challenge. This is why girls’ schools exist – to expect big things from young women, to see and nourish their talents, and to nudge them towards goals they may not have set for themselves. To fulfill these purposes, a school needs educators trained to perform a delicate task. Heavy-handed, “we know best” directives amount to engineering, not educating. And cold detachment is simply an abdication of responsibility. The philosophy we follow at SEM – the philosophy that nudged Journey in the right direction and then got out of her way – calls for educators to know their students well enough to set ambitious but attainable goals; to develop warm, supportive relationships; and to provide clear, consistent, and timely feedback. SEM has placed special emphasis on developing these traits of effective teaching over the past year, and will continue to do so.

SEM’s commitment to DEI work took programmatic form in its SEMinars. SEMinars are a break from the standard school day, where students fill their day with cross-disciplinary hands-on workshops on particular themes. Some of these focused on identity and culture. Our November SEMinar day’s theme was global learning and experience. We hired facilitators who offered up an array of cultural experiences for students, including African drummers from the African American Cultural Center, an Indian culture workshop from Akroti at Kulture Khazana, Appalachian clogging, and Chinese watercoloring lessons from the Confucius Institute. Our January SEMinar day theme was Lunar New Year, and our international students (and a few domestic students) led Calligraphy, Paper Cutting, Lantern Making and Tea Ceremony Centers. Other student leaders taught lessons on Korean Lunar New Year, Vietnamese Tet Festival, Chinese Spring Festival, and Games and Cultural Trivia. Our February SEMinar theme was Black History Month. Dana Venerable from the Just Buffalo

Writing Center led a writing workshop that was paired with the screening of Toni Morrison's The Pieces I Am. Buffalo State College professor, cultural dance expert, and alumna Nalia Ansari '07 led a dance workshop paired with the viewing of Beyonce's Homecoming. Students taught classmates how to create Bahamian headdresses and Ghanaian weavings after watching the series Afrimedia about Black art and creativity; other students watched The Hate U Give and then moved into a Restorative Justice education workshop and practice led by the Erie County Restorative Justice Coalition.

IT IS REALLY DIFFICULT TO ADDRESS ALL THAT WE RECKONED WITH AT THE CLOSE OF THE ACADEMIC YEAR. IN THE MIDST OF A GLOBAL PANDEMIC, GEORGE FLOYD'S DEATH MADE MANY AMERICANS UNDERSTAND IN WAYS THEY HADN'T BEFORE THAT THERE IS NO MIDDLE GROUND WHEN IT COMES TO RACISM.

I submitted a report to the board of trustees with a call to fully live out our values and practical recommendations. In response, the trustees formed the Anti-Racist Task Force; recognizing that as a school we have fallen short and must do better. Classmates from 1994, Jennifer Roberts and SEM Board of Trustees Vice-President Katherine Bowen Smith are its co-chairs. And so we move into the 2020-2021 school year with concrete goals and initiatives, and support from the task force to execute them.

Upcoming initiatives include:

REVISING COMMUNITY HONOR BOARD: Institute, and clearly communicate, a protocol for handling microaggressions, social media slurs, and all other conflicts. Our protocol must show that we take these incidents extremely seriously. We need to start proving that we are consistent and transparent.

TRAINING & EVALUATION: Our commitment to anti-racism, diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) means that sustained training and evaluation efforts must be tied to these values and skills. One of the task force's first moves was to hire nationally recognized DEI expert alumna Nicole

Lee as a consultant. Nicole has helped with a number of important issues from facilitation to training.

AFFINITY GROUPS: Work towards having affinity groups at SEM (which will require training and staffing). Affinity groups (facilitated gatherings of people who share a common characteristic) will both provide relief and comfort for people who spend all day conscious of sticking out, and group members' venting (therapeutic in its own right) may also bring to light an issue that SEM administration would want to hear and address.

Teaching and Learning

Armed with our laptops and the many, many resources and tools our intrepid Director of Technology Beth Adamczyk provided, SEM faculty and students switched to remote learning on Wednesday, March 18, 2020. Because of the strength and success of our 1:1 laptop program, faculty and students alike were prepared to tackle this abrupt shift. We missed our in-person Harkness table discussions and interactive lab sessions, but through the magic of Zoom, EdPuzzle, Google Classroom, and countless other tools, we were able to create virtual classroom communities that allowed us to make the most of a less-than-ideal situation.

THE WORLD NEEDS MORE SEM GIRLS

SEM has always asked the question: what does our community need?

We met the needs of the community when we opened our doors as the Buffalo Female Academy in 1851. Today, our students meet the needs of our community through service. Our students and our alumnae go on to meet the needs of their communities in various ways. And the faculty and staff at SEM work tirelessly to meet the needs of girls, empowering them to be future-ready, joyful, and creative changemakers.

Now, once again, SEM is ready to meet the needs of our community with a tuition reset.

Research shows that our originally set tuition for 2020-21 of $23,525 excludes a large percentage of families in the greater Western New York area from affording, or sometimes even considering, a SEM education.

We know our mission is to “educate college-bound young women from diverse backgrounds in a vigorous and participatory environment that emphasizes development of character, intellectual independence, creativity, service, and leadership for life.” We recognize that advancing our mission calls us to create more opportunities for qualified girls. After careful study, we’ve adjusted our tuition to do just that. We recognize that we must be aligned with what families can afford, particularly in light of the hardships caused by Covid-19 and its effects. The tuition for the 2021-22 school year is $18,510, a nod to our founding year and a reminder of why we started educating girls in our community in the first place.

SEMREADY
EXTRAORDINARY EDUCATION WITHIN REACH

A SEM education is unparalleled, and the quality of that education will not change with the tuition reset. No program or staff cuts accompany this change; SEM will continue to rely on our strong endowment and the philanthropy of our generous alumnae, foundations, and current and past parents to subsidize the cost of educating each SEM girl.

We are excited and grateful for the opportunities this will open for more young women in Western New York and the wider world. The investment families made in a SEM education for their daughters during the most formative years of their life allowed them to grow into strong, independent women who were prepared for college and beyond. An alumna’s memories, the lessons learned in and out of the classroom, the friends made, the Hornet-Jacket Days spent at Larkin; those are all priceless. This tuition reset will give others the opportunity to share in the SEM experience. Our commitment to a first-class education and upholding SEM traditions has never been stronger. We are united in the belief that the world needs more SEM girls!

SEM & THE SPANISH FLU

By Deanna Arthur '10

Since opening in 1851, SEM has worked through its fair share of trials and tribulations, victories and celebrations from World's Fairs to World Wars. 2020 is certainly not the first time that SEM has had its readiness tested. In fact, it's not even the first time that the school has had to adapt in the face of a pandemic. While a lot has changed between 1919 and 2020, a look at the 1919 Seminaria gives some insight into how SEM handled the Spanish Flu pandemic. As SEM adjusts (and sometimes readjusts) to meet the challenge of Covid-19 and the current times, a trip down memory lane shows how the school has persevered in the past.

Take a peek inside the 1919 Seminaria to see for yourself!

In her piece titled "The Flu," Emily Newman from the Class of '20 (and that's 1920, not 2020) shared a firsthand account of the impact of the influenza on life at SEM. Instead of Zoom-fueled remote learning, students received their assignments via snail mail. Some elements, however, feel very familiar. References to closed movie theaters call to mind the different stages of reopening in New York State. Even then, wearing masks was an important aspect of running errands. Heartwarming references to faculty assisting at emergency hospitals show a commitment to community that SEM still carries today.

THE SEMINARIA

"The Flu"

The bugaboo, Influenza, had crept nearer and nearer but we were far too busy with the Liberty Loan and lessons to heed its approach, until suddenly we found ourselves shut out of school, movies, church and everything enjoyable. We had always thought an unexpected vacation would be paradise, but when it was lengthened from days to weeks its glamour began to fade. Lengthy assignments of lessons poured in with each mail. When we became hopelessly mired in Latin Text or geometry theorems, we emerged to sally forth after Liberty Loan subscriptions. With our purses full and our heads empty we stormed the school. There we found many kindred spirits, muzzled in white gauze, gliding swiftly about on like errands. Our money seized and our heads stuffed with knowledge, we fled to safety, not in numbers, but in solitude and gargles.

Among the gloomy newspaper reports, which made us realize the Grimness of this ogre we called "Flu," was one column which filled us with pride, envy, and hope. It told the tale of the work done by some of our faculty: how they had rushed to the over-crowded and undermanned emergency hospitals and showed their aptitude for washing faces—dishes—floors. How futile our lessons seemed when so much must be done! How we longed to be the least of servants, if only we might so help! With a burning desire for sacrifice we announce our plan to start immediately on our hospital careers, only to be thwarted by the cold blast of sisterly scorn and the stone wall of parental prohibition.

After three long weeks it was announced that school would open again and we crowded back. We had more than gone "over the top;" we had more than "doubled the Third!" We had kept our lessons from a disastrous slump! We were all back!! Never before had we appreciated our Alma Mater.

E. N., '20.

EMILY NEWMAN
"Em"

Editor-in-Chief

SMITH COLLEGE

She is very slow at eating,
And her hair she just despises,
And she's loaded to the chin
With her books.

Emily "Em" Newman went on to be the 1920 Editor-in-Chief of the Seminaria in which she was recognized for her slow eating and her bookishness. After graduating, she went to Smith College.

The 1918-1919 calendar shows how the students took closures in stride, referring to three weeks of “unalloyed bliss on account of the epidemic.” On top of the pandemic, World War I continued to loom in the background of the school year. Students successfully fundraised for the war efforts with their Liberty Loan Drives.

Another influenza-related disruption reflected on the calendar was the indefinite postponement of the Senior Class play. Luckily, the show must go on! The seniors were able to perform “A School for Scandal,” a few weeks later.

Some events on the calendar were business as usual even in those more trying times. The familiar and withstanding tradition of Hornets versus Jackets continued throughout the school year.

? The Calender of the Buffalo Seminary 1918-1919

- October 1 The Seminary after a valiant struggle with Masten Park and Lafayette was defeated in the tennis series for the Syracuse cup.
- October 2 Senior Baby Day.
- October 3 The 4th Liberty Loan Drive opened with such enthusiasm, that it augured well for the Seminary's success in the campaign, and we more than doubled the Third, with $182,000.
- October 10 Three heavenly weeks of unalloyed bliss on account of the epidemic—except for little things like eighty lines a day of Virgil and eight or ten “dry as dust” books to read!
- November 4 Regret the vacation? Never! Even if the time of school's increased fifteen endless minutes, and lessons so lengthened that the wee sma' hours still find us poring over massive volumes.
- November 22 “It was a dark and stormy night,” but everybody appeared with great glee for the masquerade. Miss Angell comes back.
- November 27 This date should be marked with crêpe. It was that day of days, so long worked for and planned for when that masterpiece, “The School for Scandal,” was to be presented by the Senior Class. It was postponed indefinitely because of the influenza epidemic.
- December 13 “A School for Scandal” at last presented amid much pleasure and laughter.
- April 11 The championship banner awarded by the Graduates to the Yellow Jackets; and an exhibition game between the first teams of the Hornets and Yellow Jackets.
- April 14 After spending Sunday convincing our families that we study hard when we study and that afternoon sodas are (exceedingly) good for us, we reluctantly turned in our questionnaires.

Basket - Ball

The Hornets and the Jackets
Were fighting hard all year,
To win a B. S. Banner,
Which to them was very dear.
The fight was fast and furious,
The scores were nearly “tie,”
But the Jackets won it in the end—
Did I hear a Hornet sigh?

As a Jacket myself, I was excited to see that not only did the friendly spirit of Hornet versus Jacket competition survive, but the Jackets also pulled out a 1919 victory!

Jokes, short stories, poems, and cartoons comprised most of the 1919 Seminaria, showing how much student spirits remained intact. The Spanish Flu and the war beyond did not get in the way of the creativity or humorous outlook of SEM's students at that time. Flipping through the fragile pages, I was reminded that SEM has weathered storms in the past, but the community will continue to grow and flourish with the unique combination of positivity, flexibility, and perseverance that defines SEM.

HANGING of THE GREENS 2019

DECEMBER 6, 2019. THE GREENS WERE ONCE AGAIN HUNG AT SEM. Another pine-scented day of music, light, dancing, food, arts & crafts, and door decorating for Hornet-Jacket points was celebrated by all.

We fit as many winter holidays from as many cultures that we could into the day! We had Hindu dance for Diwali, lantern making for Lunar New Year, a Menorah lighting, and some intense rounds with the dreidel for Hannukah. Holiday sweaters were donned, doors were wrapped, and Buches de Noel were decorated and consumed... judged. We danced, we origami'd, we made paper chains, a class banner, snowflakes, and orange pomanders. We made a warmth tree of donated hats, mittens, and scarves, and we ate cinnamon buns that a lot of people thought were the best they'd had in their entire lives! And finally, we ended happily with a mini concert by Zak Ward.

Then we were ready to house the BSAA's annual Holiday Bazaar, the proceeds of which go to The BSAA Scholarship at SEM.

SEMday

By Ashley Morlock

Annual Fund Manager

The early days of the pandemic shuttered in-person classes, but the entire community rallied in support of SEM on May 6, 2020. Thank you for making our 7th annual SEMday celebration a record-breaking success!

SEMday is a one-day giving challenge to alumnae, faculty, parents, friends, and students. Each and every gift makes a difference, but the collective impact of SEMday gifts is enormous.

SEMday usually celebrates student experiences and opportunities, but the Covid-19 pandemic brought to light the flexibility, ingenuity, and compassion of SEM's remarkable educators. SEMday 2020 highlighted faculty dedication and invited donors and friends to submit public messages of gratitude and encouragement.

Spurred on by photos, social media posts, and email updates throughout the day, the community came together to bolster the annual fund at a critical time, providing much-needed operating support, technology, and resources to support distance learning. Together, 216 donors raised over $86,924.83 for the annual fund.

SEMday Challenges

In honor of Teacher Appreciation Week, an anonymous alumna offered to personally match the first $20,000 raised to celebrate SEM's outstanding faculty and staff. In true SEM fashion, our alumnae, parents, trustees, faculty, and friends went above and beyond, unlocking the $20,000 Teacher Appreciation challenge by 2 PM! Inspired by their generosity, the donor offered an additional $10,000 challenge, giving a total of $30,000 on May 6. This record-breaking challenge led the SEM community to shatter 2019's SEMday total of $30,869.20.

Inspired by the anonymous teacher appreciation match, alumna Cate Marlette Waddell '71 issued a challenge to members of SEM's Founders' Society, offering a $5,000 gift if five donors gave $1,000 or more. The following Founders' Society members rose to the challenge:

Michael Perley
 Clinton F. Ivins III
 Kate Bowen Smith '92
 Jennifer Soltys
 Linda Cornelius '71

SEMday appreciation-

Go SEM!! The Red-tailed Hawks are soaring. Thank you so much to SEM for such a nurturing space to grow and learn in! SEM changed my life. Thank you all so much for everything you have done to help my daughter become the young woman she is today! Amazingly flexible and innovative educators in a very strange freshman year for our daughter. Never more sure that SEM was the right choice for us! SEM shaped my life. Amazing place - graduating amazing women! The resilience of my SEM family inspires me every day.

#GivingTuesday

December 3, 2019, SEM participated in #GivingTuesday, a 24-hour global fundraiser. The Tuesday after Thanksgiving, it is to encourage giving as an antidote to the shopping of Black Friday and Cyber Monday. 37 donors raised $9,323.96 for SEM in 24 hours! That's almost doubled from 2018!

Thank you for your impact!

Alumnae Giving

18 SEM-SPONSORED
VOLUNTEER EVENTS

100% COMMUNITY SERVICE
PARTICIPATION

3,480 hours of community service volunteered in 2019-20

One of the expectations to receive a SEM diploma is service to the greater community.

While the formal expectation ends at graduation, the following alumnae continue to give generously in the same spirit that was so important then and still is today. Support from alumnae is a wonderful gesture of thanks and commitment to SEM's mission.

The Head's Council on Alumnae Engagement (HCAE) was established in June 2017 as a leadership team to support SEM's Head of School and set broad direction for transitioning the Buffalo Seminary Alumnae Association (BSAA) to a new organizational model with national and international focus.

HCAE VISION STATEMENT

Building on the friendships and shared experiences of the unique all-girls education that SEM provides, the vision of the HCAE is to strengthen connections between the school and her alumnae, and to cultivate contacts and community among alumnae living "Far from thy shelt'ring arm." The ties that unite us are not limited by time or place.

MISSION STATEMENT

Led by a team of alumnae representing a broad range of classes and geographic regions, the mission of the HCAE is to maintain our connection to one another and the school for personal and professional fulfillment, and to advance the mission and reputation of SEM. We are committed to fostering and maintaining the sense of community and support that we cherish from our time at SEM.

In support of this mission, the HCAE undertakes to:

- Communicate to all alumnae SEM's desire to engage with alumnae beyond their traditional WNY base and announce opportunities to connect with the school and with other alumnae for socializing, networking, and learning about current goings-on at SEM
- Establish new chapters of the BSAA in cities and regions beyond WNY by organizing social or educational gatherings to bring alumnae together, and identifying and encouraging local alumnae leaders to further develop connections and community in their area
- Serve as a resource and catalyst for individual alumnae to build personal and professional connections and conversations with alumnae in their community or in areas of career or personal interest
- At the request of the Head of School, provide advice and perspective on matters affecting SEM's mission, vision, values, and traditions

For more information on how to plan alumnae events in your area please reach out to Julianna Jordan '05 at jjordan@buffaloseminary.org or 716-885-6780 ext. 221.

SEMReady - Adapted Reunion

Thank you to the 73 SEM alumnae who attended the retrofitted Reunion 2020. Though on Zoom, these SEM sisters seemed undaunted. They laughed, they shared, they reminisced. We can't wait to see everyone in person June 11 & 12, 2021 for a Super SEM Reunion with the classes ending in 0, 1, 5, and 6. It will include the graduates of the Class of 2020, because why wait another 5 years to start connecting? And, they've earned a party!

Special thank you to the Class of 1970 which had the most attendees (29) at our Zoom reunion and the Class of 1960 for winning the Oshei Reunion Cup for most generous reunion class in contributions, presented by Mary "Memo" E. B. Oshei '74!

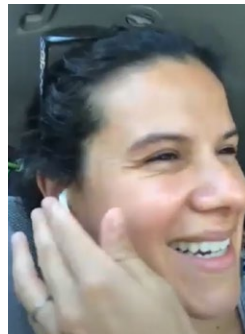

Ansie Silverman Baird '55 read a beautiful and poignant compilation of her poetry work. Our newest Outstanding Service Awardees: Jo Glauser Marymor '00 & Kilby Bronstein '10 are inspirations and embody what it means to be a SEM sister and supporter.

Ellen S. Goldstein '70 is our newest Semper Fidelis award honoree. She eloquently spoke of the tumultuous times in the nation and at school from 1966-1970 and of how SEM always finds a way to grow girls into critical thinkers.

Did You Miss Reunion 2020?

You can view the recording and Harry B. Schooley's Reunion slideshow here and make plans for this June!

TO SEND A GIRL TO BOARDING SCHOOL IS A SIGNIFICANT DECISION.

We recognize that trust and responsibility. SEM students live family-style with faculty members in four beautiful historic houses adjacent to the school and centered around the oasis of the Magavern-Sutton Courtyard. Girls make homes in these houses and form close connections with students from all over the world. Living at SEM, students have access to all the amenities a small city offers. Concerts, museums, sports, restaurants, shopping – girls learn autonomy in preparation for college and life. On weekends we ski, ice-skate, skateboard, kayak, zipline, pumpkin-pick, or take in a movie.

SEM is college prep and it's life prep.

MY HOMETOWN IN THE SOUTHEAST IS VERY SMALL AND RURAL, SO COMING TO BUFFALO IS A HUGE DIFFERENCE. I LOVE GOING TO THE PARK, THE ALBRIGHT-KNOX ART GALLERY, STORES, AND RESTAURANTS. BOARDING AT SEM WAS ONE OF THE BEST DECISIONS I'VE EVER MADE.

Emma B. '17, Residential House Prefect

Legacy Residential Scholarship

Do you know a girl who would be a great SEM girl? A great Hornet or Jacket? She doesn't have to be from Buffalo anymore... Because whether she's from around the block or around the world - Buffalo Seminary has a place for her in our 5- or 7-day boarding program in the beautiful historic homes next door to the school. Scholarships are now available for residential girls referred by a graduate, trustee of the school, or SEM family for the 2021-22 school year. The purpose of this scholarship is to build our SEM community with talented young women who have a connection to the school.

To nominate a candidate, contact Director of Admission & Enrollment Laura Munson '79 at 716.885.6780 or email admission@buffaloseminary.org.

Elm Legacy Society |

Our friends and alumnae who have chosen to name the school as a beneficiary in their wills are members of SEM's Elm Legacy Society. Membership grows each year and includes forward-thinking supporters from all decades and from an ever-widening range of life stages and financial means.

We are grateful to all who help to ensure the SEM experience for our girls. SEM's future grows stronger each time we welcome a new member to our Elm Legacy Society. Gifts of all sizes benefit future generations of students, faculty, and school leadership while offering tax advantages to donors and their heirs.

Class Notes

40's

Elizabeth Underwood Mosley '41

At 95 life is still busy and rich with family and the Quaker Meeting. I am lucky to live in my own home with some family, have many friends but miss those from SEM days.

Charlotte Wall Gibbens '46

Dale & I are living at University Village, a retirement home in Tulsa, near my daughter Jennifer.

50's

Patricia Hoffman Griffen '54

Love living in California and enjoy traveling as well as retirement. Celebrating 60th wedding anniversary this year. Sorry, couldn't attend reunion as I was visiting daughter and family in Arizona.

60's

Patricia Liesinger Guinn '61

I recently retired from Parish Ministry, but I continue to serve as Chaplain to the retired clergy and spouses here in Western New York. Recently I have added the clergy in the Diocese of Northwestern Pennsylvania.

Elizabeth Peo Armstrong '62

Just retired from my second career—37 years as a photojournalist and then a contract photographer. It was often a privilege—educational—challenging mentally and physically—and enormous fun.

Ellen Genrich Rusling '62

Enjoying winters in Saint Croix, USVI in a condo overlooking the Caribbean Sea: watching sea turtles and becoming involved in the community. The family still owns the Holger Danske Hotel on Christiansted Harbor in Saint Croix - recommend a visit.

70's

Elizabeth Dutton-Bourne '77

We have moved to Westchester County outside NYC. Fun to be able to see some SEM friends Nina Pearce Erensel '77 and Kelly Swanson '77.

80's

Kate Brill '89

After 25+ years in Williamstown, MA, we are moving to Manchester, VT! I have yet to find any place in New England that has Buffalo quality pizza, but there is something to be said for being able to ski out our door and a town with only two stop lights.

90's

Alycia Ripley '96 hosted the Buffalo International Film Festival in October 2019. She interviewed on the red carpet, introduced films & held Q&A's with talented filmmakers.

00's

Dr. Sarah E. Franjoine '06

delivered Veronica Couzo-Kamenjarin '06 and Nick Kamenjarin's baby Violet Isabella in Chicago on August 4.

Sarah is a physician with the Women's Group of Northwestern, specializing in obstetrics and gynecology.

Veronica serves as senior labor and employment counsel with IDEX Corporation in Chicago, IL. Congratulations, Veronica and Nick!

*Ansie Silverman Baird '55

Class of 1955 & 2020

"Throughout our time working together we have grown closer together to the point that we accidentally wore the same outfit!" said Magdalen McCulloch '20 who worked throughout her senior year as the assistant for Ansie Baird '55. Ms. Baird hires a SEM senior each year to do any number of tasks: office work, poetry submissions, and even helping her revise her poetry. Her criteria? "Organized, reliable, cheerful, and hopefully somewhat literary."

The work relationship has something to offer for both parties, she explained. "It has made me rethink what I'm doing and has made the student understand the complexity of writing a collection of poems."

Magdalen now attends Bryn Mawr College but her final duty for Ms. Baird was to replace herself. Ms. Baird said she always tells her current assistant to "keep your eyes and ears open in the spring for a rising present junior." She then interviews each recommendation to decide. "I can tell pretty quickly who's going to be inventive and will work well for me."

When the pandemic interrupted their plans for final college visits and meetings, the young women of SEM's Class of 2020 were not deterred. Instead, they adapted, showed resilience, and proactively utilized the tools available to them to make thoughtful and informed college decisions. They attended virtual accepted student college tours and info sessions, reached out to admissions representatives, and ultimately each girl decided what college was the best fit for her. They were accepted at over 150 unique institutions, further demonstrating their diversity and independence. We applaud the Class of 2020 for their willingness to face these challenges with grace and poise.

The years girls spend at SEM are explorations of literature, science, art, athletics, community, and self; we know they are well-prepared for their futures with the critical reasoning and independent thinking they need to thrive in the global economy.

New Honorary Trustees:

Geraldine Clauss '47

A self-described “lifetime optimist,” Jerry comes from a large, loving Irish Catholic family with a very special “Irish twin” sister. “When I got to SEM, I knew no one in the freshman class. This was my challenge. I found the same nurturing atmosphere of my family, but on a larger scale. The Seminary set me securely and confidently on my life road and for that, I’m most grateful.” At 92, she credits her healthy longevity to great genes, attitude, diet, and daily exercise (she aims for five miles a day). “My five boys (one son-in-law), their ladies, and my five adult grandchildren give my years purpose and joy. I am most grateful for my many years so I can bask in their company, wisdom, and humor. I admire the innovation and creativity I observe in the Seminary philosophy today and encourage the enthusiastic support of the greater Seminary family.”

Mary Oshei '74

Mary E. B. Oshei (Memo) has worked in Group Sales for Niagara Scenic Bus Lines, The Schubert Organization in New York City, and Shea’s Performing Arts Center. Currently, she is active volunteering and serving on several boards within the Buffalo community. As a fourth-generation SEM graduate, she has been involved with the Buffalo Seminary Graduates and Alumnae Association since her graduation in 1974. Her interests include old movies, Broadway, PBS, and NPR and her infamously naughty cat, Monty.

New Life Trustees:

Jane Hopkins Carey '75

Jane has served on the board in many positions over the decades (2006-2017), despite not living in Buffalo for any of it! Her final role was as vice-chair. She helped steer the 2012 SEM rebranding project, advised on the head search that led to Helen Marlette’s appointment as head of school in 2016, and most recently advised our SEMReady tuition reset campaign and ad hoc pandemic advisory council. Her wit, her intelligence and her love of SEM have been evident and abundant since 1971.

Harry B. Schooley III

A native of northeastern PA, Harry B. Schooley III dedicated 38 years to SEM as a history teacher. He is a 1963 graduate of the other “Sem,” Wyoming Seminary in Kingston, PA, earned a Bachelor’s degree in American Civilization from Williams College in 1967, and completed other professional-related studies at Canisius College and UB. At SEM, Harry taught at all grade levels and over the years, served as History Department Chair, advised the student council, drama club, and Model UN, coached the softball team, performed in school musicals, served as faculty rep to the Board of Trustees, and was honored as the recipient of SEM’s Trimmer Educational Chair in History and Government in 1988, and the Betty Butzer Brown Humanities Chair in 2008. He is an ardent Hornet. In retirement, Harry does alumni-related work for Wyoming Seminary (he was the 2018 recipient of the school’s Alumni Association Award) and for SEM (he posts the alumnae Facebook page’s Tuesday Trivia and puts together the annual reunion slideshow). He greatly enjoys his annual visits to our unique freshman Western New York history classes to talk about the Erie Canal and SEM’s history.

Board of Trustees Hellos & Goodbyes

Hello Anaydia Catherine Earle P '17 We are pleased to announce that Catherine Earle has joined the board as of the last full meeting in June. An experienced and innovative administrator and entrepreneur, she is also the parent of 2017 graduate Anastacia, and a multi-time Summer at SEM camper (Victoria). Her perspective, insight, and track record of business innovation success bring valuable perspective and insight to SEM.

Hello Jen Gress P '23 Jen joined the board at the end of her daughter Emily’s freshman year. An entrepreneur and former parent at Branksome Hall (the venerable girls’ school in Toronto), she brings experience and energy in abundance.

Goodbye Brian Melber P '11, '14, '16 Brian has been a member of our SEM community for 13 years (!); since the fall of 2007, when his daughter Katy entered SEM as a freshman. Since that time, Brian watched all three of his daughters graduate from SEM and contributed greatly as a valued trustee. Thank you, Brian, for your dedication to and unwavering support of SEM!

Goodbye Josephine Siddiqui P '17 Josephine has been a valued member of our school community as a parent (Fatima '17) a trustee, and ultimately on the board of trustees executive committee as secretary. Thank you to Josephine for being a tireless contributor to our positive word of mouth and generous donor.
