

DISTRICT 205 PARENT ENGAGEMENT SERIES

Each presentation will be broadcast in English and Spanish and recorded for future viewing. The presentations will follow The Distance Learning Playbook for Parents (Fisher, Frey, Hattie, & Wiseman).

Click here for more information about each session.

DEC. 08 Fine Tuning Your Hybrid Learning Environment

6:30 PM

Engage in a discussion with administrators and teachers to better understand some helpful tips and tricks as you engage with hybrid learning.

Click here to register

DEC. 17 That's Not How I Learned It, Mom!

6:30 PM

Dive into some commonly used practices in our schools and learn why we use them while gleaning some practical tips for how you can reinforce them at home during the day.

Click here to register

JAN. 07 Staying Well

6:30 PM

Focus on understanding grief, anxiety, how to support friendships from a distance, and helping your children to be happy.

Click here to register

JAN. 13 Mindframes for Students, Mindsets for Parents

6:30 PM

Learn how students can monitor their own progress, how parents can challenge their students appropriately, and how to gradually release responsibility for learning during the course of the year.

Click here to register

JAN. 15 Family Fun Night

Turn off the technology and televisions for a good ol' family fun night. Explore a menu of creative games.

Click here to register

JAN. 20 Helping Parents Support Their Children's Wellbeing During Distance Learning

Join us for this evening with one of the authors of The Distance Learning Playbook, Rosalind Wiseman, as she discusses, from the parent perspective, how we can support student learning and growth during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Click here to register