Subd. 2. A laid off employee may accept the lay off, subject to recall to a position of the same status. Refusal to accept recall to such a position will result in a forfeiture of seniority rights.

Subd. 3. A laid off employee may accept any open position of lesser status. An employee given notice of lay off who elects to take a vacancy of lesser status or who bumps into a position of lesser status shall be placed on a recall list for the group and status from which the employee was laid off.

Subd. 2. Employees given notice of layoff who do not take a vacancy shall have the right to bump the least senior employee in the group, same status; then the least senior next lower group, same status; and so on. The employee must exercise these rights in the order described.

  - C. fewer than 35 hours

Section 4. It shall be the responsibility of the laid off employee to be aware of and apply for job openings. The sole responsibility of the Human Resources Office shall be to post the openings on the district website.

Section 5. Employees given notice of layoff who bump into a position or take a vacant position or who are recalled shall be subject to a trial period of six (6) months if the Employer asserts and the Association agrees that the vacancy or position requires significant skills not held by the employee. Notwithstanding other parts of this Article, no employee shall forfeit any other rights described in this Article by refusing any position (vacancy or bump) where the District and the Association have so agreed.

In the event of a refusal, the employee shall have all rights and options decided by this Article except to the rejected position. Any employee who takes a position subject to a probationary period and who, thereafter, is unsuccessful during the probationary period, shall have the right to any then existing vacancy, same or lesser status, or to go on recall lists, but shall have no bumping rights. If terminated for cause, all rights to recall are forfeited.
