Financial Aid and College Preparation Resources for Native Americans –

- Native Americans & College Research has found that American Indians and Alaska Natives have a much lower rate of college completion than the population as a whole. Why go to college? A degree or certificate from a college or trade school is a great advantage, leading to a much wider choice of occupations and, therefore, more likelihood of a fulfilling career and a chance to make a difference in your community. In this fact sheet, we suggest some places to find information about preparing for college and paying for college.

Native American Student Achievement Program Scholarship (NASAP)

NASAP APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY MAY 22, 2020

Tacoma Community College, the Tacoma Public Schools (TPS) Indian Education Program, and the Tacoma Community College Foundation will offer the Native American Student Achievement Program scholarship (NASAP). The TPS Indian Education Program and Tacoma Community College have a long-standing relationship through co-sponsorship of the annual TCC Powwow since 2006. This partnership exemplifies respect in recognizing and honoring our local Native American/Alaskan Native students and families.

Through the generous support of community donors and the Tacoma Community College Foundation, two scholarships are available to cover tuition costs up to 12 credits per quarter, awarded to Native American/Alaskan Native students who are graduates of TPS high schools and the Tacoma Public Schools Title VI Indian Education Program.

Scholarship recipients will receive tuition-only funding for three consecutive quarters (one academic year) beginning in fall quarter. Students are responsible for covering the cost of mandatory fees: <https://www.tacomacc.edu/costs-admission/tuition-payment/>

To be eligible you must meet the following criteria:

- Participate in the Tacoma Public Schools Indian Education (Title VI) Program. It is not required that you are enrolled in a tribe or corporation. Students whose parent(s), and/or grandparent(s) maintain tribal affiliation qualify.
- Be a Tacoma Public Schools High School senior graduating by June 2020
- Graduate with a cumulative high school grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or higher.
- Completed the Free Application for Federal School Aid (FAFSA)
- Plan to attend Tacoma Community College starting fall 2020, and complete the online admissions application
- Once enrolled at TCC, you must maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA
- Students will need to apply to TCC and have a TCC student ID number prior to applying for this scholarship. FYI - unless a student has changed their portal password, their password is defaulted to their Student ID Number. Should students have any questions about the process, please have them contact:

APPLICATIONS DUE BY DECEMBER 8, 2020

Palmer Scholars is a Pierce County-serving scholarship and mentorship organization that supports low income students of color from their junior year in high school through the completion of their post-secondary education with up to $30,000 in funding, mentorship, trainings, internships, volunteer opportunities and much more!

Our mission is to support underrepresented Pierce County students of color to overcome financial, cultural, and social barriers in their pursuit of higher education. At Palmer Scholars we are "Creating Hope and Opportunity through Education."

At Palmer Scholars we identify talented young men and women of color from Pierce County who want to pursue a college education but lack the resources to do so. While our Scholars are as diverse as the communities they represent, what they have in common is determination, a desire to rise above their individual situations and make something of themselves, and the perseverance and grit to not let anything take them off of their path.

We provide our Scholars with renewable scholarships, a trained adult mentor, training to prepare them for the transition to college and ongoing support and connection with personal and professional development opportunities. At Palmer Scholars we are Creating Hope and Opportunity Through Education!

Healthcare Scholarships

- 50 Top Scholarships for Medical & Health Students - EduMed
Beginning a college education can be daunting, especially when you consider your bottom line. Although the cost of tuition can seem frightening, it's important to remember that paying for school doesn't have to drain your bank account or put you into debt. Scholarships – which are gift-based financial awards that do not have to be paid back – can really chip away at that bottom line and make school much more affordable. There are many scholarship opportunities out there specifically for those entering a medical or healthcare field. From aspiring medical assistants to advanced care nurses, this scholarship guide can help you find the educational funding you need to begin your healthcare training.

 - o Supporting Students Who Inspire - Pride Foundation provides essential financial resources and community support to inspirational LGBTQ+ and allied student leaders across the Northwest.
 - o Since awarding our first scholarship in 1993, we've awarded more than $5 million to more than 1,800 students in Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington.
 - o We Believe In the Power of Education - While much has changed for the LGBTQ+ community in recent years, educational support remains critical for students who face challenges on their educational journeys.
 - o Pride Foundation Scholars are leaders in their communities with incredibly varied educational goals and lived experiences—and are oftentimes overcoming a lack of support system, tremendous societal barriers, and significant financial need in order to pursue their dreams.
 - o Receiving a Pride Foundation Scholarship connects students to a growing community of support, providing important affirmation, encouragement, and resources to realize their dreams.
 - o Pride Foundation Scholarships support LGBTQ+ and allied students who are facing incredible barriers, regardless of school, major, or GPA.

Application Guidelines - Do you identify as LGBTQ+, questioning, or an ally? And do you live in Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, or Washington? Great news! You are likely eligible to apply for a scholarship!

- University of Puget Sound
Tacoma Public Schools Commitment – Application Deadline – November 15, 2018 for 2019 – 2020 school year.
“A Puget Sound education is rooted in an inspiring confluence of histories and cultures and ideas, and centered on our 2,600 students who are open-minded, outward-reaching, and passionate about putting their educations to work. Guided by our motto To the Heights, we seek to educate the whole person, and to give each student space to discover and room to rise to meet new challenges both locally and globally.”
<https://www.pugetsound.edu/admission/tuition-aid-scholarships/tacoma-public-schools-scholarship-program-details/>
- University of Washington Tacoma –
“UW Tacoma is one of three campuses that make up the University of Washington: the 156-year-old Seattle campus, and the Tacoma and Bothell campuses, both founded in 1990. We offer many of the same educational qualities as our sister universities — a vibrant campus setting; top-drawer faculty known for their teaching ability; a rigorous, interdisciplinary curriculum; and high standards of social responsibility.”
“At UW Tacoma, students learn in small classes, getting to know their faculty while participating in research and service projects. First-year students complete an innovative core curriculum, which blends different fields of study into interdisciplinary classes. Courses might mix art and ecology, or business and social science. The result is a rich learning environment where students are encouraged to challenge themselves.”
UWT - <https://www.tacoma.uw.edu/>

“The University of Washington Tacoma is committed to increasing American Indian student recruitment and retention, and coordinating with local tribes to promote initiatives on campus that benefit Native students and encourage respectful interaction with tribes.

Our campus exists on land of the Puyallup people and we are honored to have developed a strong partnership with the Puyallup Tribe of Indians as the official tribal sponsor of UW Tacoma.”

- Native Pathways Program at Evergreen

“The Native Pathways Program is for students who are invested and involved within Native American or Indigenous communities and culture.

The Native Pathways Program (NPP) promotes life-long indigenous scholarship by placing value on cultural and traditional knowledge, working with indigenous research methodologies, and expanding indigeneity through academia.”

- Locations and Schedule
- Olympia, on the Evergreen campus
- Port Angeles, at Peninsula College’s Longhouse
- Quinalt
- Tacoma

“You can attend class two nights per week at approved sites or through a hybrid program combining online and in-person instruction. All students attend class four Saturdays per quarter (typically one per month) at Evergreen’s Longhouse on the Olympia campus.

Eligibility

You can apply for this program if you have strong connections to tribal and indigenous communities and have earned 90 or more college credits. You can apply and start in any quarter.

If you don't yet have 90 credits, you can apply to Evergreen and take classes in Olympia, with the option of also enrolling in the Saturday NPP classes to earn the 90 credits required to enter the Native Pathways program.”

Tribal College Finder

- American Indian College Fund

“For nearly 50 years, Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs) have provided a path for American Indian students to access a higher education and the opportunities it provides. TCUs allow Native students to take their first steps towards earning a degree on or near the reservation communities they call home. In addition to receiving an accredited higher education, students thrive in a learning environment in which the culture, traditions, and experiences of Native people are woven into the DNA of the institutions—providing a space for them to learn and be understood.”
