Year 4 Non-Negotiables!

I can include adjectival phrases (the beautifully carved frames are priceless) in my writing.

I can use a mixture of nouns and pronouns in my writing to avoid repetition.

I can use an apostrophe to show that something belongs to one thing or a group of objects.

I can use commas after adverbials at the beginning of a sentence (eg. Later that day,)

I can use conjunctions and adverbs to link paragraphs.

I can write with joined handwriting so that my letters are easy to read.

I can start my sentences in different ways.

I can use commas to show clauses.
